Dynamite Rains Rock On New Novato Homes

A ear-splitting blast shook the Maestro Road area of Novato at 4:45 p.m. yesterday, knocking out power, hurling rocks over a half-block radius and dropping one rock through the roof of a new $30,000 home.

Construction workers, trying to loosen the rock formation around a new septic tank, said today that they probably used too much dynamite for the job.

A falling rock from the blast made a small hole in the roof of a new $30,000 home of Mr. and Mrs. George Borgman at 8 Maestro Road.

It blew rocks through the air more than half a city block on all sides.

It shorted out a fuse in the electric line, 25 feet away, shutting off power to 15 homes as diners were being prepared.

It left a 30 foot crater in the ground.

The blast came about because of a chain of actions. D. W. and B. Construction Co., of 1106 Grant Avenue, Novato is building the new house for the Borgmans. Harry Van Koop, Marin County health department sanitarian told Joe Hays, superintendent for the construction company that dynamite might loosen the rocky sub-soil so that the septic tank would work better.

Hays hired Carl Burton of 203 Auburn, San Rafael, to blast out the septic tank hole.

Burton said he used 54 sticks of dynamite. The ground was softer than he had calculated, Burton stated. "I didn't look for it to throw rocks as far as it did," he said.

The resulting blast literally shook the homes all along Maestro Road. L. E. Bengston of 156 Maes-

Garety Names Young Lawyer New Deputy

A young San Rafael lawyer, who passed the state bar last fall and is winding up a six-month tour of duty with the Air Force, will join the Marin County District Attorney's office Monday as a new deputy.

He is Gary W. Thomas, 24, of 550 D Street, San Rafael. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety announced his appointment this morning. Thomas will be assigned to the specific task of prosecuting violations of the county's housing, health and zoning violations. Thomas starts at a salary of $538 per month.

A graduate of University of San Francisco, Thomas has just completed six months of reserve duty as an enlisted man at Hamilton Air Force Base, attached to the 631st Air Hospital Reserve Unit.

While attending law school, Thomas worked for a San Francisco insurance company and for a bank.

He is a native of Great Falls, Mont. He lives with his wife, Maureen, at their San Rafael home.

Fair Weather Expected To Continue For State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fair and continued warm is the forecast for most of California through tomorrow.

There will be fog along the coast, however, and slightly lower temperatures near the central coast.

Pay Hike Expected To Up Building Cost

Work began again today on multi-million-dollar Marin building and highway projects as final Northern California construction union contracts were signed and the long, expensive struggle between labor and management ended.

Contractors and construction workers both claimed heavy losses during the two-month strike and lockout. The results will begin to show up in higher home construction costs and higher bids on public works projects. Contractors estimated a five per cent increase in most construction.

Workers from all construction trades were on the job again, and one Marin union spokesman said "things will soon be booming."

Last of the trade unions to win its demands was the cement masons. A new three-year contract was negotiated last night in San Francisco after a 13-hour session before a federal mediator. The contract will add a package hourly wage and benefit increase of 74½ cents to the masons' present wage of $3.97 an hour. The increase will include 15 cents for vacation benefits, never before obtained by Northern California cement masons.

About 120 cement masons in Marin will be affected by the increase.

Other contracts approved this week are:

Laborers, the only union actually on strike until Tuesday night, won a 70-cent package increase over existing hourly wages of $3.22½.

Carpenters in the Bay Area settled for a 65-cent package increase over present wages of $3.95.

Operating engineers won increases ranging from 62½ cents to 80½ cents over three years. Their wages now range from $3.54 to $4.67 an hour.

Teamsters won 68½-cent package increases in a three-year contract.

But about 40,000 workers either on strike or forced out of work lost an estimated $1,200 apiece since laborers walked out May 1.

According to the state department of employment in San Rafael, about 300 men were out of work last week because of the construction tie-up. About 200 of them were laborers who won't get unemployment benefits. The rest, who were locked out of their jobs, may get about $250 each from state unemployment insurance, but their claims have been protested by employers despite a state ruling that entitles them to benefits.

Appeals on the unemployment benefits will be processed next week.

Crazy Bluejay Likes To Have Beak Tweak

By BRUCE COLEMAN

There's a crazy jay in Mill Valley who comes when called, will sit on a person's head and who likes to have her beak tweaked.

The bird is Blue Wing and by day it has adopted many soft American ways. By night it flies back into the oaks to roost with its contemporaries.

Blue Wing belongs, in a sense, to Kirk, 8, and Krista Norton, 5, of 161 Lovell Avenue. Kirk found the bird after it had fallen from her nest at the home of Dr. D. C. Fowler nearby. The youngsters were looking for pine cones in deep grass in an area they call "Easter pine cone land."

For some time Kirk fed Blue Wing with an eye dropper. Now he feeds her dog food from his fingers. This is how the Nortons know Blue Wing likes to have her beak tweaked. When they feed her and move her head, Blue Wing moves her head back and forth, apparently enjoying it.

"She also flutters her wings when fed," according to Mrs. M. James Norton, the children's mother.

The one problem, Mrs. Norton explained, is "I am worried about Blue Wing becoming neurotic. She follows us around the yard like a dog. She will light on my head or on my husband's head. She will al-

OLD-TIME AIR PREVAILS IN SAN ANSELMO

With a touch of nostalgia for old-time straw hats, bonnets, fancy vests and long skirts, Hub City merchants turned the clock back half a century today as they opened the first Old San Anselmo Days, a city-wide sales event.

The event, which will run through Saturday, is planned for the old-fashioned shopper, who can remember "the good old days" when a dollar really went somewhere.

Merchants participating include Richard A. Kientz, owner of San Anselmo's oldest business, Kientz's Pastry Shop, and Edwin Nordmann, owner of the San Anselmo Paint Co., in business 35 years.

Churchill Breaks Leg In Fall At Monte Carlo

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill fell to the floor in his hotel early today and suffered a fracture close to his left hip joint.

His secretary, Anthony Montague Browne, said Churchill suffered a fracture of the neck of the femur. This upper extension of the thigh bone leads into the socket of the joint. A fracture there could be a serious matter for a man of Sir Winston's age—88 next November.

He came here Tuesday for a two-week vacation, leaving Lady Churchill at their country home at Chartwell.

A spokesman for Lady Churchill in London said Sir Winston will be flown home Friday and will probably recuperate from his accident at his London home in Hyde Park Gate.

Montague Browne said, however, it was not yet decided

State To Beautify Freeway If City Will Curb Billboards

The City of San Rafael can eliminate the clutter around the Highway 101 approach to the city and get a free landscape job from the state when the highway is improved if the city amends its sign ordinance.

The San Rafael Beautiful Committee will take this message to councilmen when they meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the city hall and ask them to amend the sign ordinance to regulate advertising signs on property within 300 feet of the highway.

If the ordinance is changed, the state, when it widens and improves the section of Highway 101 running through San Rafael, will lay necessary water pipes and landscape the area. Improvements are expected to be done within the next few years.

Gene O'Connor, committee chairman, said only two signs along the highway between the San Quentin overpass and the foot of Puerto Suello Hill, the area not encompassed by the present ordinance, would be affected.

"We don't want to create any fears that businessmen's signs will be torn down along Francisco Boulevard," he said.

"The state allows signs advertising the company. What it doesn't allow are signs advertising the product only."

Facilities for care and maintenance of a landscaped freeway would have to be planned in advance of any construction work. O'Connor said it would not be possible to place them after the roadway is completed.

In a letter addressed to the council, the committee says: "The opportunity for this city to clean up and make attractive what is generally referred to as one of the ugliest approaches to any city on the Coast Highway will probably never be presented again."

The Marin Garden Club has officially joined the move to improve the highway. Laura M. Thayer, corresponding secretary, says: "This section is so cluttered with signs, and is so unsightly and unattractive, that it is far beneath the dignity of a city of San Rafael's caliber and beauty."

"Motorists who are strangers to San Rafael must misjudge it completely. They must wonder if its governing body takes any pride in the face that San Rafael presents to the travelling public."

Building Bond Issue Will Go On Nov. Ballot

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Legislature, climaxing a three-day special session, voted today to submit a new 270-million-dollar state construction bond issue to the November election ballot.

The Assembly's Democratic majority held solid and gave 42-32 final approval to Gov. Edmund Brown's omnibus proposal which previously cleared the Senate with only two dissenting votes.

Assemblyman Milton Marks (R-San Francisco), joined with the 41 house Democrats in voting for the bill. Thirty-two Republicans voted no and Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos), abstained.

The minority Republicans protested to the end that the Democratic administration was inviting defeat again by re-offering what they termed substantially the same measure rejected as Proposition 3 in the primary.

Democrats replied that Proposition 3 had been reworded to make it clear that 80 per cent of the money would go for higher education. They argued its best chance rested on a single package.

The Republicans insisted on two separate issues to separate the University of California, state and junior colleges from other state construction.

The new proposal provides 222 million dollars to build new facilities for the state's system of higher education. The rest of the money is allocated to prisons, hospitals, narcotics control and fire-fighting.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Spyros Retirement Expected

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The retirement of Spyros Skouras as president of 20th Century-Fox surprised no one in Hollywood. It had been expected since last fall.

Even before the studio's troubles with such recalcitrant stars as Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn Monroe and Dean Martin, the Wall Street money men had moved in to depose the Greek emigrant who had risen from busboy to head the town's second largest studio.

A 25-million-dollar loss in production plus the astronomical cost of "Cleopatra"—at 30-million-dollars the most expensive movie ever made—doomed the 20-year reign of Skouras as head of the company.

The board of directors said Skouras was retiring because of ill health.

Skouras, 69, whose salary as president last year was $139,000, is also a big stockholder in the film firm.

The statement yesterday said Skouras' successor will be chosen by a committee including Skouras himself, and a new position will be offered to him after his retirement as president.

'Star System Is Finished'

ROME (UPI)—Italian movie director Dario Laurenti assailed the "mad caprices" of Elizabeth Taylor and other Hollywood stars yesterday, and said their day is over.

Other stars criticized by De Laurentiis in a speech at the foreign press club included Marlon Brando, Dean Martin and Gina Lollobrigida.

Miss Taylor was the director's chief target. He predicted that her antics would have a "100 per cent negative" effect on the 30-million-dollar movie "Cleopatra."

"The truth is that the star system is finished," De Laurentiis said.

Actress Kin Dies

WEST LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rita Fitzsimons, 64, mother of actress Maureen O'Hara, died yesterday of cancer.

Held In Art Crime

LONDON (AP)—Franz Weng, 56, a German, was held today for throwing a bottle of ink at the National Gallery's two-million-dollar Leonardo da Vinci drawing of the Madonna. The bottle failed to break and bounced off the protective plastic shield, causing negligible damage to the drawing.

Police charged Weng, who described himself as an artist, with malicious mischief. He was seized yesterday immediately after he threw the bottle in the crowded gallery. Authorities gave no motive for his act.

Safety Turnabout

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council has accepted its own highest award for safety from itself.

The award, a plaque, commemorates three million man hours worked without disabling injury. The council has 375 employees and accumulated its reward in four years, three months.

William H. Lowe, Inland Steel treasurer and the NSC's board chairman, presented the award to the council president, Howard Pyle.

Two To 20 Years

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Superior Court Judge Francis McCarty sentenced Larry Benny Garber, 18, of Colma to state prison for from two to 20 years yesterday for purse snatching.

After passing sentence, the judge declared:

"I'm going to continue sentencing this type of violator to state prison until my wife feels free to walk the streets of San Francisco in the evenings without being molested or injured."

Garber pleaded guilty to hitting Mrs. Katherine Greis, 50, on March 22 and snatching her purse. Many similar crimes have been reported recently in San Francisco.

Astronauts In State

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Astronaut John Glenn and Scott Carpenter today began a two-day working visit here which will include an inspection of an Atlas missile that may be used to boost fellow astronaut Walter M. Schirra on an unprecedented six-orbit mission.

The two astronauts arrived here last night after a brief stopover in Los Angeles. They were presented with the keys to the city by Mayor Charles Dail.

The primary purpose of their visit is a working meeting with the management club of General Dynamics - Astronautics, builder of the Atlas missile that boosted both of them into their history making space journeys.

Nation's Weather

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL. Rain clouds sprinkled parts of Dixie and the plains early today, which broke fair and warm throughout most of the nation.

Nearly an inch of rain drenched Cotulla, Tex. Earlier, downpours measured 2.82 inches at Fort Worth and 2.66 at Georgetown. Winds with gusts of nearly 70 miles an hour were recorded at Fort Worth airport.

In the afternoon, tornadoes were spotted near Huntsville, Ala., but they apparently did not touch down and no damage was reported. Wind-whipped hail and heavy rain lashed an area about 40 miles south of Jacksonville, Fla.

The temperature this morning at Alpena, Mich., was 46, less than half the reading at Needles, Calif., 97.

Vacant School Land

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The state may soon offer for public sale 592,140 acres of vacant school lands and congressional land grants presently under the jurisdiction of the State Lands Commission.

The commission yesterday took under advisement a plan to list the lands for sale or lease.

Tide and submerged lands, and lands administered by departments of the Resources Agency, are not included.

Mexico Ready To Greet JFK With Welcome Tomorrow

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Rising expectancy gripped the Mexican capital today on the eve of President John F. Kennedy's arrival for possibly the warmest welcome Mexico has ever given a visiting chief of state.

Tens of thousands of posters, banners and signs were going up along the parade route from the International Airport to Los Pinos, the Mexican White House. Work had been held up until the last minute because of the torrential rains falling each afternoon. Officials did not want them to be damaged or faded tomorrow.

Three hundred bands, including many mariachi and marimba groups, were assigned places at intervals along the route.

An estimated one million persons will line the streets. Schools are closing, federal employees are being let out from work, and all unions are ordering members to turn out in force.

The Weather Bureau said it was almost certain that warm sunshine would greet President and Mrs. Kennedy when their jet touches down after a four-hour flight from Washington.

It is almost equally certain that showers will fall during the afternoon, as this is the rainy season.

Police said they expect no anti-Yankee demonstrations. Steps were being taken to prevent any. Known Communists have been rounded up, students warned, and security measures are tight.

However, the Communists have called for a demonstration sometime tomorrow. A 24-hour visit Tuesday by Blas Roca, Cuba's top Communist, added to fears at least a minor disturbance may develop.

Kennedy and his host, President Adolfo Lopez Mateos, will talk privately on three separate occasions, with a total of about 3½ hours set aside for the conversations.

No agenda has been set for their talks, but Kennedy told his news conference in Washington yesterday he wants to discuss all Latin American problems, not just those between the United States and Mexico.

This reinforced speculation that the U.S. president would bring up Fidel Castro's regime and its influence throughout Latin America. The Kennedys will spend 48 hours in Mexico. Their first day's program will be packed with activities, beginning with airport ceremonies and ending with a Mexican folklore ballet at night.

On Saturday Kennedy will attend the annual Fourth of July celebration held by the 15,000 member American colony. On Sunday, just before they take off for Washington, president and Mrs. Kennedy will attend Mass at Mexico's leading Roman Catholic shrine, the Basilica of Guadalupe.

Pharmacists Criminal Conviction Is Upheld

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The criminal conviction of the 1,500-member Northern California Pharmaceutical Assn. for conspiring to fix prices of prescription drugs was upheld yesterday by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Attorneys for the association indicated they would appeal the unanimous opinion to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The association and Donald K. Hedgpeth, San Francisco pharmacist who formulated a price schedule distributed to druggists in 1956-60, were found guilty of violating the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, by a U.S. District Court June 16.

The association, accused by the government of causing the public to pay at least 12 million dollars more for prescription drugs than it should have, was fined $40,000 by the late U.S. District Judge Louis E. Goodman.

Hedgpeth, past president of the association, was fined $1,000.

The case, first of its kind brought by the U.S. government, involved drugs which were compounded by manufacturers and sold by druggists, usually under the druggists' own label.

The U.S. Department of Justice has civil suits pending against druggists groups in Arizona, Utah and Idaho, seeking injunctions to prevent allegedly similar illegal price-fixing. Most action in those has been delayed pending final decision in the California criminal case.

The pharmacists' main argument in their appeal was that they were professional persons, not subject to the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

The court noted, however, that most of the work involved was done by pharmacists hired by store operators and paid straight union wages.

Higher U.C. State College Tuition Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Higher non-resident tuition fees for the University of California and the state colleges are in the planning stage.

The Coordinating Council for Higher Education yesterday took under consideration proposals to boost non-resident tuition at UC from $570 to $595 a year, and non-resident tuition at the state colleges from $360 to $595 a year on a temporary basis.

The proposals, contained in a council staff report also recommended developing a standard fee program for junior colleges, and non-resident fee increases for the medical and dental schools of the University of California.

The council cannot raise fees, but does make recommendations to the U.C. Board of Regents and the State College Trustees.

U.C. President Clark Kerr said his only objection to the proposals was their effect on foreign students. Foreign student tuition at state colleges is still $225 a year.

Sisters of Nazareth File For Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced The Poor Sisters of Nazareth of San Rafael in Marin County has filed articles with his office to form a non-profit corporation.

The group listed its directors as: Mother St. Donatus (Mary Hanbury), Mother M. Placidus (Margaret O'Doherty), Mother St. Angela (Julia Rigney), Nazareth House, Hammersmith, London, England.

Art Awards Go To Oil Artists, Napa Sculptor

"Tennessee Cove," by Katharine B. Johnson of San Anselmo, a large oil painting of the marsh and stream leading to the beach, with ocean in distance, won the popularity award at the annual Novato Art Show given in the Nevins Kemthorne Studios at 60 Grove Lane Sunday.

Second award went to Helen La Bay Schwichtenberg of Vallejo for her "Still Life," a brilliantly colored grouping of French bread and salad greens.

"Mikko," a bust of a Japanese child by Frances Shoaf of Napa, won third award.

Ninety paintings by 28 competing artists were on display. Also shown, but not in competition, were 13 portraits, marinescapes, landscapes and still life paintings by Kemphorne.

JFK Urges More Prayers At Home

WASHINGTON (P)—Whether the Supreme Court's school prayer decision pleases or displeases, in President John F. Kennedy's view it's the law of the land and commands support.

Moreover, he says it should encourage every family to pray more at home.

There is bound to be disagreement, Kennedy said at his news conference Wednesday.

He did not express a personal opinion but declared: "I think that it is important that we support Supreme Court decisions even when we may not agree with them."

This was his indirect advice to members of Congress who have denounced the court for holding an official prayer read in New York schools an unconstitutional crossing of the wall separating church and state.

Kennedy declined to comment on constitutional amendments proposed to circumvent the ruling until he could measure their effect on the Bill of Rights.

The President was asked about the decision after he opened the conference with a statement designed to correct any misunderstanding of U.S. policy by the Chinese Communists. In course of questioning, he also restated policy on Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government on Formosa.

The United States, Kennedy emphasized, opposes use of force in that area but is ready "to take necessary action in the face of force."

He cautioned the Communists, who have been massing troops on the mainland off Quemoy and Matsu, that the U.S. position remains as it was under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower: It is committed to defense of Formosa and the Pescadores and would react to an attack on the offshore islands that appeared to threaten Formosa and the Pescadores. He did not specify the form such a U.S. reaction might take.

As for any attempt by Chiang to attack the mainland, Kennedy said a 1954 agreement prohibits such an offensive without U.S. concurrence and repeated: "Our interest in this area is defensive."

For the controversy over the court decision, Kennedy said, there is a simple remedy. "And that is to pray ourselves." He said it could serve as a reminder to pray more at home, attend church with greater fidelity and make the true meaning of prayer more important in the lives of children.

Kennedy had this to say of other subjects:

Congress—Don't adjourn, he suggested, without adopting a good deal more of the administration's legislative program. He enumerated trade, tax, medical care, education and farm proposals among those difficult to get through Congress.

Trade—With the House gripped in debate over his tariff-cutting bill, Kennedy said passage this year "is vital to the future of this country." He opposed a Republican move to substitute an extension of present trade law as self-defeating on grounds that "we have exhausted the powers" it provides.

No China Attack, U.S. Tells Chiang

WASHINGTON (P)—Under policy decisions of President Kennedy, the United States is reported to have told President Chiang Kai-shek's government on Formosa that it flatly opposes threatened attacks by the Chinese Nationalist on Communist China.

In another move to forestall a Formosan crisis, Kennedy publicly warned the Communists Wednesday against attacks on Nationalist-held territory, including the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

"The United States," Kennedy told a news conference in words directed to Peiping, "will take the action necessary to assure the defense of Formosa and the Pescadores. Any threat to the offshore islands must be judged in relation to its wider meaning for the safety of Formosa and the peace of the area." He did not spell out what action might be taken.

His public comments of special significance for the Nationalist government were less direct but he declared, "We are opposed to the use of force in this area." He described U.S. policies and purposes with respect to the Formosa situation as being purely defensive.

Informants later confirmed that the U.S. position on any Nationalist military operations against the Communist-held mainland has been made known to the Nationalist leaders at Taipei.

The President said a 1954 agreement which commits Nationalist China not to act against the Communists without U.S. agreement is still in force.

Alan G. Kirk, retired admiral who is the new U.S. envoy to Taipei, is understood to be carrying a message from Kennedy to Chiang dealing with the Formosa situation. Kirk left here Wednesday for Formosa.

In official quarters here the impression is that if the Reds launched a massive assault on Quemoy and Matsu the United States would almost certainly go to Nationalist China's support.

But informed officials here still consider as unlikely any Red Chinese attempt to seize the offshore islands. They also tend to discount the possibility of Nationalist operations against the mainland.

Ross Has Upper Hand In Apartment Battle

The Town of Ross now has the upper hand in the five-year see-saw battle with a property owner who wants to put in a 20-unit apartment across the street from Ross General Hospital.

Town Atty. Robert W. Elliott just received word from the District Court of Appeals in San Francisco that the town has the legal right to restrict the area to one-family residences.

Since 1957, Miss Margaret E. Hamer of 1125 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard has been trying to get a rezoning for two acres of land to put in garden apartments. The town council denied her request. She went to Marin Superior Court, which upheld her right to build apartments.

But the Town of Ross appealed to the district court of appeals.

Town Attorney Elliott reported that the appellate court gave this ruling: The one-acre lot restriction on Miss Hamer's property is invalid, but the town has the power to restrict the area to one-family residential.

The result of the appellate court's ruling is that Miss Hamer cannot build apartments there.

Cities Urged To Press For County Road Pact

City officials in Marin were urged last night to appear en masse before the county board of supervisors when it next discusses the city-county urban thoroughfare agreement.

Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael told the Marin Council of Mayors' dinner meeting in Larkspur's Blue Rock Restaurant that "I think we've got" the long-discussed agreement to allocate a share of county gasoline tax for use on "through" streets in the cities.

However, he said, "you all should be present" when the matter next comes before the supervisors.

Ronald E. Piper, Larkspur city manager, warned that Supervisor William D. Fusselman might again try for a 2-cent ad valorem road tax.

"The whole idea of this agreement was based on gas tax allocation," said Piper. "We need to be there to make sure that idea isn't abandoned."

Mayor M. E. Silva of Novato, president of the Council of Mayors, said McInnis would notify all the cities when the supervisors are to consider the road matter again. He joined Piper in urging a united front to prevent a road tax taking the place of gasoline tax allocation.

The supervisors have tentatively agreed to allocating $130,000 for use in the streets within cities, but details are yet to be worked out.

Ross and Fairfax were not represented at last night's Council of Mayors meeting, of which Larkspur was host city.

The next meeting will be Sept. 25 in Sausalito.

Stray Bullet Nearly Hits Local Girls

A bullet narrowly missed two young San Rafael girls yesterday as breakfast was being prepared for them by Mrs. Betty Ward Sharpe of 59 Golden Hind Boulevard.

Mrs. Sharpe was in the day room at 11 a.m. when the .22 caliber bullet passed within two feet of her daughter, Saxton, 8, and Sybil Guthrie, 7, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Guthrie of 9 Sussex Court, San Rafael.

Mrs. Sharpe said she heard two shots from the hills in back of her home. The one bullet pierced a large plate glass window at the five-foot level and traveled downward, lodging in the opposite wall of the room.

A search of the area by San Rafael police failed to turn up any suspect. Parents of the children guessed that someone was shooting at birds in the hills to the south of the residence.

COST

Continued from page 1 projects now under way again in Marin, about 1.5 million dollars worth of state highway construction will start up. Officials at District IV state division of highways headquarters in San Francisco say some jobs might be in full swing Monday, including widening of approaches to the Golden Gate Bridge and initial work on widening of Tiburon Boulevard near the Alto Highway 101 interchange.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:
1:35 p.m., Alto—Car in south-bound lane of Highway 101 on Alto hill caught fire from broken fuel pump; Corte Madera and Alto firemen responded; damage nominal.

2:49 p.m., Novato—Smoldering fire broke out in straw in corral at Lloyd Brooke Ranch at 520 Davis Street; burned about three acres of grass with no damage before four trucks and 21 men controlled it.

4:57 p.m., Richmond Bridge—Car fire in westbound auto on upper deck one-half mile from the approach on Marin County side; San Quentin and Richmond fire departments responded.

Girl Swallows Rubbing Alcohol

A 15-year-old girl, who swallowed rubbing alcohol in Corte Madera last night, was treated at Marin General Hospital and released in good condition.

The victim was Jane Huffman, of 209 Edgewood, Mill Valley.

The manager of Texaco Service Station at Camino Alto said a man drove up with the girl about 6 p.m., looking for a doctor. He then drove her to Marin General Hospital.

Joe Lopez of 435 Manzanita Avenue, Corte Madera, and Bill Marsh of 205 Vista Grande, Greenbrae, found the girl on the side of a hill in Corte Madera near Chapman Drive.

Stay Granted Slayer For Appeal Of Case

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Supreme Court yesterday granted Allan Ditson, 38, a stay of execution so that he can appeal his case to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Ditson was to be executed July 18 in San Quentin's death chamber for the 1959 killing of Robert Ward in Los Angeles.

CRAZY

Continued from page 1 ways follow you if you dig worms for her. And, if we're not home, she'll try any of the neighbors."

Mrs. Norton said she asked Mrs. Calvin Terwilliger, Mill Valley naturalist, what to do. Mrs. Terwilliger replied that "this is very unusual. Cherish it."

"We are worried about cats, too," said Mrs. Norton. The dogs, of which the Nortons have two, chase birds. "Blue Wing doesn't run. So they don't chase her."

Kirk called Blue Wing on our arrival and she immediately flew to the open window and sat on a bird box perch. Kirk then fed her with his fingers "like a baby," according to Kirk's mother.

"We have no screen," said Mrs. Norton and "she'll fly in the window in the morning, sit on the bed and jabber until you get up and feed her. Sometimes she sits on the table and once she frightened a couple of neighbors by flying into the room when they were here."

The blue jay is believed to be about two months old. The Nortons think it is a female because its plumage is less colorful than the other birds and the males seem to be interested in Blue Wing.

"The funny thing," Mrs. Norton said, "I've always hated birds, until Blue Wing."

Cyclist Cuts Finger

Anthony Giusti of 5 Edna Court, Kentfield, a surveyor, suffered a cut finger yesterday morning when he turned his motorcycle northbound off the Highway 101 frontage road opposite Sabella's and ran off the roadway to scrape along the guard rail. Treatment was given at Marin General Hospital.

OBITUARIES

Mill Valley Real Estate Broker Dies

Harold E. Stacks, 37, San Francisco real estate and insurance broker, died today of an apparent heart attack in his Mill Valley home.

County Coroner Frank J. Keaton said Stacks was pronounced dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 7:24 a.m. He was taken to the hospital from his home at 21 Lomita Drive, Mill Valley, where he lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stacks.

James McKenzie of the same address, who shared a room with Stacks, told Keaton he went into the kitchen to make coffee at about 6 a.m. and returned to call Stacks. He was unable to wake him, and called an ambulance.

Stacks had been under a doctor's care for a heart ailment for 10 years, Keaton said. An autopsy was to be performed today.

Stacks was a native of Missouri. He had lived in Mill Valley two years and in California 29 years. His office was at 260 California Street in San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley.

DYNAMITE

Continued from page 1 tro road, more than half a block away fell over his house. Pacific Gas and Electric repair crews took nearly an hour to repair the blown fuse at Wilson Avenue and Indian Valley Road to restore power to the area.

Today, D. W. and B workers were busy cleaning up the mess and repairing the roof on the Borgman house.

Tiburon Council Discusses Suit

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council last night discussed the status of the suit filed Monday by J. P. Eichorn, president of the Tiburon Incorporation Committee, and Fred C. Hannahs asking the court to compel the board of supervisors to act on the incorporation petition.

The land use committee reviewed items to be considered at Monday's meeting of the county planning commission including a proposed building to be constructed by Fred G. Zelinsky and a new subdivision, Reedlands Woods.

No action was taken on either matter.

ELEANOR SANBORN

Eleanor Dickson Sanborn, 54, member of the Walburn Realty firm who was found dead in her bathtub yesterday morning, died from a hemorrhaging of a blood vessel leading to the brain, Coroner Frank J. Keaton reported today.

She had been living alone at 11 Reed Street, Mill Valley. When she failed to show up for work yesterday morning, a fellow employee, John Brorsen of 3 Shell Road, was sent to her home to check on her. Brorsen found the body and called police.

Assistant Coroner William Bradley said that Mrs. Sanborn was probably stricken between 7 and 8 a.m. yesterday while taking a bath. A pathologist's report indicated that a blood vessel leading to the brain had burst.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

Five Lawmen Due Honors At Banquet

Five law enforcement officers who passed the Marin County Peace Officers training school with top honors will receive special awards tonight at a dinner meeting of the Marin County Peace Officers Assn. at Star Hall in San Anselmo.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, president of the association, will present the awards and hand out diplomas for officers who successfully completed the 13-week training school which ended on June 14. The meeting is set for 6:30 p.m.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani of San Anselmo was chairman of the training committee. Instructors from San Francisco, Oakland, the state Criminal Investigation and Identification Department, Federal Bureau of Investigation, California Highway Patrol, Marin District Attorney, and the State Bureau of Narcotics helped in the training course.

Assistant Chief Sam N. Serio of San Anselmo is in charge of the steak barbecue.

Recreation Bond Bloc Ready With New Bill

SACRAMENTOUPI—Backers of a new recreation bond, smaller than the one defeated by voters June 5, were ready to introduce it in the legislature today.

But further action depended on whether Gov. Edmund G. Brown would permit its introduction by making it the subject of a special call.

Sen. Ronald Cameron (D-Auburn), had the bill drawn and ready to be tossed in the Senate hopper if he can get administration approval.

But Brown has said that he will not place the recreation bond on special call unless asked to do so by Republicans. Cameron said that the GOP had decided in caucus to oppose resubmission of the bond issue.

Cameron's bill would put a 100 million dollar bond issue for acquisition and development of recreation land in California. The one defeated earlier this month had the same purpose but was for $150 million.

Cameron blamed the June 5 defeat partly on insufficient funds to conduct a statewide campaign. He said that a new source of campaign money, totaling about $100,000 had appeared.

Meanwhile, the Sierra Club was urging Brown to make the special call. In a joint telegram to Brown, club president Edgar Wayburn and executive director David Brower said that "conservationists all over the state of California are gravely distressed at your hesitancy in leading the state."

They called the primary election defeat a "tragedy" and said more time and funds to present the case would result in a November victory.

Law Degree Is Due

Gordon W. Hackett of Tiburon will receive his bachelor of law degree at graduation exercises of San Francisco Law School Saturday at 4 p.m. at the Mark Hopkins Hotel. William B. Tyler, president of the school, will award the LL.B. degree to 15 graduates.

Novato High Gets Additional Math, Science Teachers

The Novato Unified School District board Tuesday night approved adding another mathematics and science teacher at Novato High School, requested by Principal Robert McKeay.

The board hired Maria Sousa of 24 Plaza de Mira, Novato, as a junior clerk-typist. Miss Sousa, who graduated this month from Novato High School, came to this country eight years ago from her native Azores Islands.

Under belief that state law requires it to meet on July 1 for reorganization, the board set a meeting for 2 p.m. that date. But because July 1 is a Sunday and no quorum is expected, another meeting was set for 8 p.m. July 5 for the actual reorganization.

In 1956, after Spain and France gave up their protectorates over Morocco, the internationally ruled zone of Tangier was turned over to Morocco.

Honeymoon Pair's Car Vandalized

Vandals at McClure's Beach damaged a car rented by Albert W. Gatov and his bride, former United States Treasurer Elizabeth R. Smith, sometime Monday while the Gatovs were on an outing.

Mrs. Gatov turned in the complaint today to Deputy Sheriff George Barnes. She said they had driven a car from a rental agency to McClure's Beach about 11 a.m. When they returned to the parking area about 3 p.m., they found the hood had been opened, and the distributor wires torn out. The overflow water pipe next to the radiator had been bent out of shape.

Four wooden planks that cover a small footbridge leading from the parking area to the beach had also been torn out.

yesterday authorized their majority leader, Hugh Burns (D-Fresno), to appoint a committee of seven senators to conduct a statewide campaign against the measure.

The Senate committee will name a citizens' committee to work for the defeat of the initiative, Proposition 23 on the ballot.

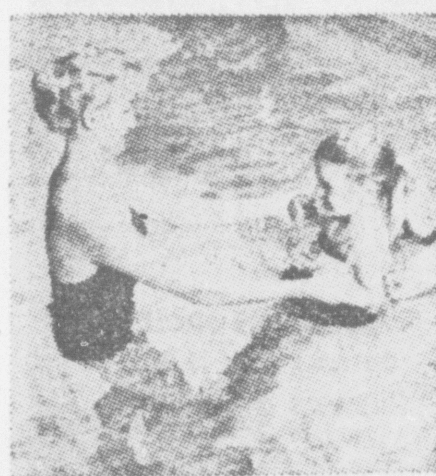

The measure, by Los Angeles County Supervisor Frank Bonelli, would increase the Senate from 40 to 50 members. Los Angeles County would get five new seats and San Diego, Alameda, San Francisco, Orange and Santa Clara counties each would get one. No county now has more than one senator.

Burns also said he would introduce a bill next year to restore cross-filing in the primary elections "if it has any chance of passage."

Burns said write-in primary campaigns, which have replaced cross-filing, have become a burden to county clerks.

Cross-filing, repealed by the Democratic 1959 legislature at Gov. Brown's request, permitted candidates to try for the nominations of both parties.

City Budget In Sausalito Is 27% Over Current Year

Sausalito's proposed 1962-63 fiscal budget is $564,638, City Manager Charles A. Brown said today.

This is $122,000 or 27 per cent over the current year. And, it is $78,000 higher than estimated revenues for the current year. Financing the budget will require a proposed eight cent tax increase, use of capital outlay reserves and use of money unspent from the past year, Brown said.

Estimated tax rate is $1.33 per $100 assessed valuation, eight cents above the current $1.25 tax rate. This breaks down to general fund, .865 cents; park, .11 cents; library, .125 cents and retirement, .23 cents. Current year's breakdown is general, .765; park, .12; library, .135 and retirement, .23.

The eight-cent tax increase would mean a $3.86 a year tax increase to a person owning property with a market value of $20,000.

Major increases, according to Brown, are shown in the sharp increase in services. There will be a $228,000 increase in salaries; an a $23.

300 increase in operation and maintenance and a $70,000 increase in capital outlay.

Salaries are five per cent increase for all excepting three, the police clerk and superintendent of streets who are newly employed and the building inspector, William L. Hynes, who is to get a proposed 10 per cent increase.

Breakdowns in each account (given first) are compared with current figures (given secondly):

General government, $59,922, $48,760; police, $93,515, $74,365; fire, $68,068, $64,810; building regulation, $5,445, $6,545; public works, $138,910, $100,490; parks and recreation, $12,733, $19,930; library, $19,140, $18,500; other operating expenses, $165,220, $116,335.

Financial status report and budget have been submitted to the city council who have set July 12 for the next finance committee meeting.

It is proposed to add one police sergeant, two part-time police clerks and one maintenance man to the sewer maintenance department.

It is also proposed to increase to full time status deputy finance officer Hazel Pieraccini, deputy city clerk Wilma Young and Hynes. Both Hynes and Mrs. Pieraccini will go from seven hours to seven and one-half hours; Mrs. Young was moved from seven to seven and one-half hours about two months ago.

Under operation and maintenance increases it is proposed to give uniform allowances to both police and firemen.

In the capital outlay fund, these projects are proposed: Fire house construction at Spencer Avenue near Highway 101, $40,000; fire house land, $13,000; improvements to the corporation yard land, $12,000; park-playground, $23,000 and the fourth installment of 20 payments for South School playground, $1,155.

It is proposed to replace one police car at $2,200 under capital improvement projects and purchase one compact car at $1,900.

"It is proposed to provide new equipment including replacement of a pickup truck for the street department, purchase of a tractor loader-backhoe, a vibrating roller and an emulsion sprayer.

A ladder truck for the fire department has been proposed. Replacement of the four-inch water line on Sausalito Boulevard from boulevard tank toward Spencer Avenue, 650 feet with six inch drain and connection of a six inch water line on the unpaved portion of Sausalito Boulevard with a six inch main on Marion Avenue are also proposed.

Brown said the public works department's $38,000 increase would provide a major change in the level of services from a program geared to a "hand operation" type to one of a preventive maintenance one.

He suggests that the city council consider a 10-cent library building tax to construct a new library. This tax, he said, would realize about $68,000 or more in five years.

The contingency or reserve fund is set at $10,715, slightly under $12,000 of this year.

Brown explained that, in spite of higher revenues, expenditures will exceed revenues by $78,000. Some of this difference between current revenues and expenditures will be made up by the appropriation of $40,000 for the construction of the new fire house from capital outlay reserve. Another large amount would come from monies appropriated but not spent in the current year which are being carried forward for 1962-63.

Use of the prior year's revenues out of the general fund will be requested to the extent of about $27,000. The remaining $10,600 of expenditures which exceeds revenues would be made up by an eight cent increase in property tax.

A single possible opportunity to maintain a $1.25 tax rate for this year is through sale of surplus city property, Brown said. One building site is available for this purpose on Sausalito Boulevard.

Pleasure Ride Ends In Injury For Three

A pleasure ride on the San Geronimo-Nicasio road last night ended in injury for three men when their car turned end over end.

One of the passengers, Dennis Jack Unterman of 17 Buena Vista, San Anselmo, was in fair condition with a concussion at Marin General Hospital where the other two were treated for minor hurts.

William C. Arant of 169 Humboldt Street, San Rafael, was northbound at the wheel of an open convertible when the accident happened a mile north of the Sir Francis Drake Boulevard intersection at 8:15 p.m. California Highway Patrol investigation showed that the car went along a ditch for 240 feet before tumbling end over end for another 60 feet, to come to rest upside down.

Arant, Unterman sitting in the middle, and Frank Gallardo of 10 Freeman Street, San Rafael, were all hurled out.

Gallardo suffered cuts and bruises of ankle and forearm and Arant's eyebrow was cut.

Though the other two said they were "going to see a friend" Unterman told the patrol they wanted to "blow the oil off one of the spark plugs."

Stinson Adopts New Fire Budget

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners last night adopted a final fiscal 1962-63 budget at $11,500. The figure compares with the current year's budget of $11,220.

Commissioners said they will try to maintain a tax rate within that of the current year, according to Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, secretary. Present rate is 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Mrs. Greene added that some money has been earmarked for equipment but the equipment has not been specified.

Golden Gate Will Net $1.75 Million

Golden Gate Bridge will make a net profit of more than one and three-quarter million dollars this fiscal year, bridge district directors were told yesterday.

General manager James Adam reported to the bridge finance committee that revenues for the fiscal year ending next Saturday will approximate $4,801,000. Of this, $3,646,000 has been paid out in operating costs, bridge improvements, and nearly a million dollars in interest.

However, interest paid to the bridge on investments and bank deposits totals more than $631,000. The net income, Adam estimated, is $1,786,656.

Adam also said the reserve fund at the end of the year would equal nearly 21 million dollars.

The finance committee approved, and will recommend to the full bridge board next Friday, a $2,056,592 budget for the coming fiscal year. This is about $15,000 less than the current budget.

Included in the new budget would be a 5 per cent pay increase for all bridge employees with salaries under $10,000 unless they are in fields covered by labor union contracts.

Six bridge employees who wouldn't get raises, but whose salaries will be further considered by the full board, are the general manager, whose salary is now $22,980, the administrative assistant, attorney, toll captain, maintenance superintendent and project engineer.

The budget also calls for $873,500 in additions and betterments for the bridge during the year. This includes $600, 000 for a traffic control system. However, Adam told the directors this meant any traffic control system they approve and not necessarily traffic arches.

Other improvements would be: the Marin viaduct widening, $200,000; resurfacing Sausalito lateral, $37,500; new tow car and tower truck, $25,000; shop equipment, $8,000; office equipment, $3,500; and new overhead catwalks at the Marin anchorage, $1,500.

Cuba's Top Red In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Blas Roca, Cuba's No. 1 Communist, took a plane Wednesday for Uruguay after a mysterious 24-hour visit to the Mexican capital.

Roca, whose visit came just three days before the arrival of President John F. Kennedy, told reporters: "I did not come to Mexico to agitate, nor have I thought of agitating in any place."

Roca turned aside queries as to what he thought about Kennedy's impending visit.

Newspapers speculated that Roca came here to organize Communist demonstrations to mark the welcome for Kennedy.

Burns To Seek Revival Of Ballot Cross-Filing

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro tempore of the senate, said he will sponsor a bill in 1963 to return cross-filing to California's election ballots.

The state's unique cross-filing system, which had permitted candidates to run on the primary ballots of both parties, was outlawed in 1959. Outlawing of cross-filing long had been an aim of the Democratic party and Gov. Edmund G. Brown put the measure high on his first list of legislative goals.

Burns, however, said he would push for passage of a bill to restore cross-filing in 1963 and would push to pass it over the governor's veto, if the governor vetoed the bill.

"California was under cross-filing for some 30 years," Burns said. "We suffered no ill effects from it."

"The opposition to cross-filing is predicted on a popular belief among some that the voters don't know what they're doing," Burns said. "I disagree. I think the voters are doing a pretty good job and they know what they're doing."

Burns said he understood the state association of county clerks would take a position urging the return of cross-filing. Burns said he understood the clerks' job in conducting elections are being hampered by the large number of write-in votes which are being cast and must be counted.

Quarterly Sales Taxes For Marin Total $410,173

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Local sales taxes of $410,173 were distributed to Marin County and its cities during the second quarter of 1962, the state board of equalization reported, bringing the total distributions for the 1961-62 fiscal year to $1,781,785.

Of the second quarter distributions, $55,482 went to the unincorporated area of the county, while $192,681 went to San Rafael. For the fiscal year, the unincorporated area of the county received $277,335, while San Rafael received $798,549.

Revenues for the county as a whole were up during the 1961-62 fiscal year by 5.1 per cent from the previous year. Revenues for San Rafael were up 6.1 per cent for the fiscal year.

For the state, taxes collected during the first quarter, which were distributed during the second quarter totaled about 57 million dollars.

Novato Resident Seen On Bay Area Television

Joseph D. Dushan of 759 Plaza Amapola, Novato, is appearing on television stations throughout the San Francisco Bay Area in a public service announcement urging the employment of youths for summer jobs.

The announcement is one of a series produced by Station KGO-TV, San Francisco, for the second consecutive year in cooperation with the California State Employment Service. It features students from 23 Bay Area cities in an appeal for support of the job drive.

Lagunitas Trustees Will Meet Tonight

A MATCH FOR POODLES

Some of the best poodle puppies from Marin will be exhibited Wednesday at the Wawona Clubhouse in San Francisco in the annual Poodle Puppy Match of the Poodle Club of Central California. Marin poodles will include entries from Sandelyne Kennels of Mill Valley, Maiden Lane Kennels and Meringlen Kennels, both of Fairfax, Marney Kennels of San Rafael and Fiddlers Kennels of Novato. Official veterinarian will be Dr. William Rushworth of Terra Linda. The show will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and entries will be accepted until 11:30 a.m. In the photo, with champion poodles Ma Vielle and Willy is 3-year-old Debra Durney, daughter of Mrs. Margo Durney of San Rafael.

Sugar Import Bill Clears Senate, But Deadlock Looms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration has won its sugar fight in the Senate with overwhelming passage of a bill that would eliminate subsidies to foreign producers.

Passage last night by a 76-2 vote after 10 hours of debate sent the measure to a Senate-House conference. There it runs smack into a House bill which is in direct opposition to administration recommendations on foreign sugar purchases.

The conferees will be working under a tight deadline since the 28-year-old sugar law, which long has divided the American market under tight controls, expires at midnight Saturday.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), head of the Senate delegation, told a reporter he could not be surprised if there is a conference deadlock. He suggested a temporary extension of the present law might result.

Rep. Harold D. Cooley (D-N.C.) who is expected to lead the House conferees, has called the administration bill wholly unacceptable on foreign purchases.

Both bills agree on increasing to 60 per cent the U.S. growers' share of the domestic sugar market. It now is 55 per cent.

They also are quite similar on the allocation to American producers of more than 60 per cent of the new growth factor resulting from increasing population, although the Senate measure is slightly more generous to U.S. beet growers.

The two bills disagree completely on the method of handling the 40 per cent of American consumption reserved for foreign countries.

Besides following the administration lead in eliminating the premium subsidy price on foreign purchases, the Senate also knocked out all country-by-country allocations except for the long-standing obligation to the Philippines.

The House bill named 25 countries and gave them specific quotas.

The Senate accepted Kennedy's proposal that 2.58 million tons of the foreign share be allotted to Cuba if that country's Communist government is overturned. Meanwhile, the tonnage would go to friendly nations on a competitive basis.

The House version reserved 1.5 million tons for Cuba but parceled that out among all nations in the next year.

Nixon Advises Against Underrating Red Peril

FRESNO (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, proposing a four-point state program to combat communism, said today that persons who consistently downgrade the Communist threat at home render a disservice to their state and nation.

The Republican gubernatorial nominee, addressing the Department of California American Legion convention, said the idea that there is no internal danger from communism contradicts the records of Congressional committees.

"It rests on the absurd premise that the United States, the primary target, is alone among the nations of the world exempt from Soviet subversion and infiltration," he said.

The former vice president urged the legion to support what he called a "minimum program to deal with the menace of communism." It included:

1. School age and adult level education on Communist history, tactics, aims and purposes.

2. Public support of investigations by both state and national legislative investigating committees.

3. Support of loyalty and security programs for federal, state and local employees.

4. Denial of the use of tax-supported schools and institutions for speeches by individuals who have defied the registration provisions of the Subversive Activities Control Act or refused to testify before legally constituted grand juries or legislative investigative committees.

Nixon said that any program of anti-Communist education in public schools, to be truly effective, must be authorized by the local board of education and carried out by the local administration and teaching staffs.

New Artificial Liver Can Rescue Some Ailing Patients From Coma

CHICAGO (AP)—An artificial liver can rescue some patients from coma due to a faulty liver, three physicians reported today.

The substitute liver is a tube filled with special resins—an ion exchange column—which removes excess ammonia from the blood passing through it.

Normally, the liver gets rid of the ammonia, which is formed when proteins are broken down in the body. The excess ammonia is one cause of coma, and death.

The new device was described to the American Medical Association's annual convention by Drs. Nathaniel P. H.

Ching, Thomas F. Nealon Jr. and John H. Gibbon Jr., of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

Blood is taken from an arm, pumped through the column, and returned to the vein in the arm. The device has been found capable of removing 80 per cent of the ammonia in the blood, the team said.

It has brought five out of 10 patients treated thus far out of their comas, they said. In most of the failures, the patients were bleeding internally before the blood-cleansing aid was tried.

The method cannot help all patients with chronic liver trouble, the physician stressed. It appears best for those with some liver insufficiency who temporarily get into trouble because of insults such as infection, excess protein in the diet, bleeding in the gastrointestinal tract, or surgery. Any bleeding has to be controlled first.

The Philadelphia team began experimenting with dogs in 1959. Now a pharmaceutical firm is developing disposable, assembled units which need only the addition of a pump.

The physicians said the technique looks promising and safe, and they urged other physicians to try it on more patients to establish its full value.

Convicts Roosting In Water Tower To Protest Treatment

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hit by hunger and thirst, 11 convicts are sprawled on a water tower at Western State Penitentiary, apparently determined to show just how long they can hold out in their protest demonstration.

Two gave in Wednesday. One of them had to be hospitalized because of his weak condition.

Prison officials are waiting for the rest to come down. It's just a matter of time, they say. The leader of the defiant convicts is parole violator Robert Payne, 29, who is spending his fourth day under a blazing sun.

Twelve others joined Payne on the tower Tuesday evening in demonstrating against alleged prison brutality.

The two who gave up the ordeal climbed down from the 100-foot high catwalk within a two-hour period around dinner time. It was felt the sight of convicts filing into the mess hall was a factor.

One convict with a booming voice shouted that the tower prisoners were protesting the use of gas on prisoners in the "hole" — solitary confinement.

Warden James Maroney said that prepared ammonia gas is used on prisoners who act up, but denied that any are treated cruelly.

Home Folks See Capitol In Summer

By REP. CLEM MILLER

WASHINGTON—With summer in Washington come the visitors.

The concept of Capitol Hill thronging with visitors beleaguering office holders is a familiar one. It comes down from the times of Andrew Jackson. But today's visitors rarely are job-seekers. Most of them this time of year are families on a long-planned trip to Washington so the children can see their Nation's Capitol and Congress at work.

The House convenes at noon. During the morning hours I am in my own office (Room 229 in the Old House Office Building, across Independence Avenue from the Capitol building itself), or a meeting or a hearing of my committee, or testifying before another committee.

No matter what I am doing, the work at hand is stopped for a visit with the people from home.

"How do you like it here?"

"Is your family here with you?" "Five girls, you say?"

"How often do you get home?" There are questions about government, about the operation of Congress.

We arrange for passes to the visitors' galleries of the House and Senate, or far a tour of the White House (a month's notice is helpful for these days). We suggest other nearby sights worth seeing: Archives, where the Declaration of Independence (and Jefferson's working draft of his masterpiece), the Constitution and the Bill of Rights are on display; the Smithsonian Institution, the Custis-Lee mansion, Lincoln Memorial, and so on.

Others stop by the office on business. The man from California who is "just touching base," or sounding you out on a bill, or alerting you to a mortal peril to his interests. A few minutes of intense, purposeful talk, and a brochure left to read, and he makes a prompt exit.

The visits continue in the Capitol itself. A visitor's card or a note is brought to you on the floor of the House by a page and a meeting ensues in the hallway at the west door of the House chamber. When the House is in session, the west door is a cluster of people—waiting for their representative, or talking with him. Members squeeze against the marble walls or the statue of Thomas Jefferson or in a corner niche reserved for some absent piece of statuary.

A few weeks ago I was asked by a visitor, "How do you organize your day?" My answer was that I have very little to do with organizing my day—it is pretty well organized for me by my visitors and callers.

To an efficiency expert, these unplanned interruptions would probably be considered a questionable use of time. Efficient or not, they are an integral part of the job of a member of Congress.

It may even be the most efficient way for a congressman to work. It means that uninterrupted contemplation of any problem is usually impossible during the daytime. But the other side of the coin is that he is accessible—accessible to people and to ideas. I learn something from every visitor I see.

Budget To Be Eyed

Richardson Bay Sanitary District directors will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in an adjourned meeting at the Trestle Glen treatment plant to discuss the 1962-63 budget. They did not meet Tuesday night as had been scheduled.

SIAMESE TWIN GOES HOME ALONE

Patricia Lowe, held by her mother, went home from the hospital in San Francisco yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lowe. She is one of Siamese twins separated in a five-hour operation May 29 in Children's Hospital. The other twin, Prudence, held here by her father, will remain at the hospital a few days more as a precaution. The twins are 11 weeks old. The Lowes have two other children, aged 6 and 1. (AP Wirephoto)

Bay Area Government Group Called Assist To Strong Local Autonomy

The Assn. of Bay Area Governments "constitutes the only means the cities and counties have of maintaining themselves as strong units of government," its managing director told the Marin Council of Mayors last night.

Wilbur Smith, a former San Rafael city manager who has been managing director of the association since it was organized, spoke to the mayors, city councilmen and city managers at a dinner meeting in the Blue Rock Restaurant, Larkspur.

ABAG "is not a level of government—we have no governmental power," said Smith.

In fact, he emphasized, it was organized to prevent institution of regional governments which would supersede the powers of cities and counties.

While there are several similar associations of cities, for the same purpose, elsewhere in the United States, ABAG is unique in including both cities and counties, Smith reported. It now has seven county and 59 city members. Each has one vote in the general assembly, which is its policy making body. The executive committee has equal representation from cities and counties.

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced today he has issued a notary public commission to William M. Nelson Jr., 15 Main Street, Tiburon.

Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael, vice president and an organizer of ABAG, in in-

Almonte Residents Want Street Fixed

Eight Almonte residents complained to the Almonte Sanitary District board Monday night about the way developer Ray Anderson had refilled Stanford Avenue between Wellesley and Peralta Avenues after installing sewer lines.

Speaking for the group were Frank R. Little and Fred Kivette.

The board, according to Chairman Homer E. Winfield, postponed waiving of connection fees until such time as the road is "back in shape."

An adjourned meeting will be held Monday, Winfield said.

roducing Smith cited regional problems which cities and counties acting separately cannot handle: highways, water pollution control, etc.

Rapping the concept of regional "super-governments," he declared:

"Marin County is practically being persecuted" by the Regional Water Pollution Control Board "while one-half of San Francisco's sewage goes into the bay untreated."

Referring to the proposed Point Reyes National Seashore, he declared: "Half of West Marin is to be bought by the government at the instigation of an outside agency—San Francisco."

Through ABAG, said McInnis, cities and counties around the bay seek to get together to protect themselves against regulations imposed from Sacramento or Washington which render the local governments helpless.

Radio listeners will have a chance to hear Smith's explanation of ABAG at 12:15 p.m. Sunday, when Mayor McInnis will interview him on his KTIM program, "McInnis Speaking."

Store Is Sold In Mill Valley By Dimitroff

Dimitroff's Picture Frames in Mill Valley has been sold by Stephen P. Dimitroff to Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Lincoln of Strawberry, Dimitroff announced today.

"Now I'm going to have time to paint the hills of Mill Valley," said the artist and framer and added "I hope to have an exhibit ready in about one year."

Sale of the business at 173 Throckmorton Avenue, price of which was not disclosed, is to become effective Sunday. The business has been in Mill Valley 12 years.

Lincoln, an engineer at KPX in San Francisco, has had wood working as an avocation for many years and became interested in framing since he has framed many of the paintings of his artist wife, Marilyn. He has a workshop at the Lincoln home at 244 East Strawberry Drive.

Mrs. Lincoln will manage the shop and all employees are to remain. Dimitroff is to remain connected with the shop, coming in every other Saturday, he said, to do some restoring and cleaning of old paintings.

Mrs. Lincoln studied art several years at Berkeley and recently at College of Marin and Dominican College. She has also worked in Mill Valley as a real estate salesman. Her art work has been exhibited in Berkeley, Oakland and Mill Valley. She is at work on collages now. The Lincolns live with their son, Mark, and Mrs. Lincoln's mother, Mrs. Lois West.

Dimitroff lives at 171 Marguerite Avenue with his wife, artist Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff. They have three children.

Lutheran Churches Merge

DETROIT (P)—A new church was born today in the largest merger of Lutherans in American history.

With solemn ceremony and song, four denominations joined forces to become one—the Lutheran Church in America.

"We rejoice with thanksgiving that Thy spirit has led us to this hour," was the prayer of about 7,000 Lutherans massed here for the occasion.

Rank on rank, they moved forward to kneel in communion around white altar tables stretching across the red-carpeted arena of Cobe Hall.

At one point, in dramatic symbolism of the unification of the four bodies, the flames of four tall candles were brought together, fusing into a single, bright blaze.

Presidents of the four former denominations took part in the proceedings, formally consummating the merger.

Their past divisions trace back to differences in national origin and languages. But these factors have faded on the American scene, leading to formation of the new united church.

Its name: "The Lutheran Church in America."

Altogether, it has 3½ million members in 6,125 congregations, the sixth largest Protestant body in the nation.

Witnesses Branded Slayers

Belvedere attorney Vincent Hallinan, defending murderer suspect Robert Lee Kidd, electrified the courtroom in San Francisco yesterday when he accused a prosecution witness and her husband of the crime.

Hallinan charged that Mrs. Ruth Sillineri, and her husband, Edward, owners of a bar that Kidd visited, had killed San Francisco antique dealer Albert Clarke Dec. 13, 1954.

The prosecution had put Mrs. Sillineri on the stand to tell that Kidd and another man were in her Valencia Street bar on Dec. 12, 1954, discussing how they could obtain some money.

The next day, Clarke's mutilated body was found at the rear of his shop at 171 Valencia Street. Mrs. Sillineri fled from the witness stand soon after Hallinan finished his cross examination.

But she and her husband angrily denied the charge.

Clarke was believed to have been murdered by a ceremonial sword in his shop. Yesterday Dr. Henry Turkel, San Francisco Coroner, said either of two swords shown as evidence by the prosecution could have done the job.

It is the third time Kidd has been tried for the murder.

Kidd's first trial in 1961 resulted in a guilty verdict. This was later reversed by the State Supreme Court which ordered a second trial which ended in a hung jury earlier this year.

Kidd was arrested in Indiana in 1960 and charged with the murder.

Vote Outcome Dubious On Veteran Loan Bonds

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan has asked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to keep the state legislature on a standby basis because of a possibility that Proposition 2, the $200-million-dollar veterans loan bond issue, might fail.

In a letter to Brown, Jordan noted Proposition 2 had carried by only about 36,000 votes but there still were about 45,200 absentee ballots to be counted, Jordan said. Los Angeles County voted 55 per cent against the bond issue and Orange County 59 per cent against.

"In view of the fact these are leading counties, votewise, in the state, it would seem that the legislature should be recessed until after July 9 when the official canvass of the primary election will be completed," Jordan said.

Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro tempore of the senate, said he would not favor a session to reconsider the veterans bond issue if it fails to win approval. He said there certainly was no confusion among voters on the measure.

Steelworkers Reach Agreement With 5 Major Aluminum Firms

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers of America announced today new two-year agreements with five major aluminum companies covering 20,000 union members.

The agreements, effective Aug. 1, do not provide for any wage increase.

Union President David J. McDonald said the agreements were reached "without government intervention or pressure from any outside source."

They provide for improvements in vacations and pensions and supplemental unemployment benefits.

A new supplemental vacation plan could provide as much as a week's additional time off a year for every employee, union sources said.

The agreements were reached with the Aluminum

Co. of America, Reynolds Metals Co., Kaiser Aluminum Corp., Olin-Mathieson Chemical Corp., and Ormet Inc.

The pacts also call for continuing a present 23-cent an hour cost-of-living allowance.

The settlement was announced at a news conference by McDonald and John S. Harrison, Alcoa vice president in charge of personnel and industrial relations.

They said a contract had been signed with Alcoa and that pacts with the other four companies would be signed later today.

The agreements were reached more than a month before the expiration of present contracts. This is the earliest this has been accomplished in 25 years of negotiations with the union, McDonald and Harrison said.

15 Young Boys Jailed —For Glue Addiction

BAKERSFIELD (AP)—Fifteen boys, aged 5-16, have been arrested and placed in the Kern County Juvenile Hall because of their addiction to toxic model airplane glue.

Investigators said today the youngsters became intoxicated by sniffing it.

Dr. Joe Boydstone, county jail physician, said all the youths are addicted to sniffing the potent glue.

One boy, 12, is being treated for after effects.

Three youths told officers they tried to quit sniffing the stuff but were unable to do so.

One 15-year-old said, "I really tried to stop, but I guess I just got used to it."

The majority of the boys arrested said they shoplifted the glue.

Some merchants said they refused to sell the glue to juveniles in large quantities.

Sheriff Leroy Galyen has asked the county supervisors to pass an ordinance prohibiting the sniffing of glue.

Mount Diablo in Contra Costa County has an elevation of 3849 feet.

Coat Protected By Leaving It Off

MEMPHIS (AP)—Conversation overheard between a Memphis 2-year-old and his father after a birthday party:

"Bradley, did you get any ice cream on your new coat?"

"No, sir."

"Fine. Did you get any cake on your new coat?"

"No, sir."

"Say. That's great. You're a good boy!"

"Yes, sir. I didn't wear my new coat."

X-15 Does It Again As New Record Is Set

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—X-15 pilot Joseph A. Walker, streaking upward to a maximum altitude of 120,000 feet, set a speed record during the climb—but he didn't mean to.

The space agency aviator took the 52-foot, stubby-winged rocket plane aloft yesterday to experiment with some risky braking maneuvers. But en route to the maximum altitude, he reached a record 4,159 miles an hour—more than six times the speed of sound.

The old mark of 4,093 mph was set last Nov. 9 by Air Force Maj. Robert White, also in an X-15.

Officials said they were uncertain why the craft, designed for a 4,000 mph top speed, did so well.

The flight was to test the angle to attack, a maneuver future space craft may use to slow their return into the earth's atmosphere.

The plane loses altitude with its nose higher than its tail in a "pancake landing."

The plane was dropped from a B-52 bomber at 45,000 feet and landed 10 minutes later.

Through 1961 jockey Bill Hartack's mounts have earned $15,800,000.

West Terra Linda Children Denied Buses To Vallecito

Parents of seventh and eighth grade West Terra Linda children attending the Vallecito School received a polite turnaround last night from Dixie School District trustees on their request for school bus transport. The board felt that compliance would have meant deviation from an established policy.

Ben Blount of 80 De La Guerra, as spokesman for a group of parents living west of Santa Margarita School which instructs only through the sixth grade, wanted their children beyond that grade given transportation to the farther-east Vallecito School which gives seventh and eighth grade teaching.

Since the parents live two miles from Vallecito School they felt that a bus should be provided. Trustees, however, had decided that this school could serve the Terra Linda area without furnishing buses. Those asking the service are within San Rafael city limits and within a planned community.

By previously established policy no bus service is given seventh and eighth grade pupils living within a planned service area. Transportation is given within two miles for third to sixth grade pupils, and one mile for first and second grade, with certain exceptions.

A contract was awarded to W. J. Kubon for construction of the Vallecito multi-use room and music room addition with site development. Base bid for building construction was $183,184 with alternate bids for site development and installed equipment totaling $31,943. Approval must be given by the state local allocation board before signing.

Supt. Dennis B. Willis was authorized to contract with Nancy Lee Stiles of Fortuna and Charlotte Anne Ackerman of Tucson, Ariz., as teachers for the 1962-63 school year.

One-year leave of absence was granted to Keith Anderson to be teaching principal in an American school in Germany and maternity leave was granted Mrs. Nina Bloom, Don Timoteo School first grade teacher. Resignations were accepted from Mrs. Janet Lokensgard, Bernard Hoffman second grade teacher, and Billie Joan Orhtman, Hoffman fifth grade.

Authorization was given to contract with Mrs. Nancy Napoli as a summer school teacher and with Robert Sparrow and Paul A. Ryan as summer school assistants.

Public liability insurance for buses was raised from $500,000 to one million to $500,000 to two and one-half million.

Received gifts of $46.88 from the Vallecito Parent-Teacher Assn. and of $69.85 from this year's graduating class for trees and shrubs at Vallecito School.

An organizational meeting date of 7:30 p.m. July 2 was set by the board for the district office at 4775 Redwood Highway.

Thief Takes New Car For Spin, Leaves It

Somebody sneaked a brand new 1962 Thunderbird automobile out of the Ames Ford warehouse, test drove it for about 13 miles, and left it next to United Produce Co. at 95 Louise Street, San Rafael.

San Rafael Police Officer Thomas C. Cheatham said the car was found yesterday morning by company officials. It was undamaged. Ames Ford officials did not know the vehicle was missing until they were notified by police.

A bouquet for Ames

"No G.I. blues with our deal"

"It's important for men in the service to buy their cars from a dealer they can trust. Our purchase of a new Ford Wagon from Gates Mitchell of Ames Ford was completely satisfactory, with all terms of the transaction openly explained."

A TWISTER HIT MARIN CITY?

Workers were demolishing these old commercial buildings in Marin City today in preparation for a new commercial area. Looking as if they had been hit by a cyclone are signs from Hayden's Department Store, the drug store and Marin City Cleaners. Brice Bros. Market has already been torn down and work is expected to be completed on all structures by Saturday night. The one and one-quarter million dollar job is being done by Ceccotti and Sons of Corte Madera. (Independent-Journal photo)

County Budget Is Readied For Printers

Work was well under way today in offices of the county administrator and the auditor-controller toward preparation for printing of Marin County's preliminary budget, expected to be available to supervisors and the general public July 21.

This was in pursuance of the supervisors' passage of an over-all resolution of approval of final budget.

Supervisor William D. Fuseselman, who made the motion, pointed out today that he did this to bring matters to a head and let work proceed to the printing stage but that it didn't guarantee his support.

"I reserve the right to vote against the final budget," he said. "In order to move things I went along, as did George Ludy, on certain things we didn't personally approve."

While Administrator Alan Bruce was revising his written commentary from the form in the proposed budget, to accord with developments before the supervisors during preliminary consideration, the auditor-controller's staff was bringing figures up to date as decided on by the board.

Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell said he would have a "preliminary tax rate figure" in firm form available for the board next Tuesday. But the word "firm" is relative, because of uncertain elements which will become known before the Aug. 21 date for adoption of final budget.

Beer Burglars Hit Tam Store

Beer thieves looted the Valley Mercantile Store in Tamalpais Valley sometime last night, the owner complained to the sheriff this morning.

Joseph J. Ryan of 504 Pine Avenue found his store at 401 Pine Street had been burglarized of all the beer. The amount of beer taken was not immediately known.

Sgt. Guy V. Gibbs of the sheriff's office was investigating the burglary this morning.

Assessor Bert W. Broemmel will provide the local assessment roll for Clerk George Gnos on July 10, Broemmel said today.

There is bound to be some dissatisfied customers, Broemmel admitted, and the board will hold equalization hearings as soon as possible—probably starting about Friday, July 13 if the assessor is able to do research on the first appeals by that time. These hearings will be kept within two weeks and will depend on the number and complexity of appeals.

But about 10 per cent of Marin's whole assessment will be unknown until state Board of Equalization figures are sent to San Rafael, probably just before mid-August, giving the state roll on utilities including such items as properties of Northwestern Pacific Railroad, Pacific Gas and Electric and Pacific Telephone.

All these things must be in the hands of Mitchell, along with latest information of what may be expected from such income as sales and gasoline taxes, before he will be in position to compile his final property tax figure including last budget decisions of the supervisors.

Warren Junior Critical Of Nixon

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Earl Warren Jr., son of the Chief Justice of the United States, sharply criticized Richard M. Nixon Tuesday and said of the Republican gubernatorial nominee:

"He can legitimately promise no more than four years of mediocrity as head of this state."

Warren, a 32-year-old Sacramento attorney, switched from Republican to Democratic registration early this year. He made his remarks about Nixon in a speech to the Hollywood Democratic Club in which he urged the re-election of Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Bolinas-Stinson School Board Adopts Budget

Trustees of Bolinas-Stinson Union School District last night adopted a tentative budget at $93,040 for the 1963 fiscal year.

It is hoped, according to Mrs. Blanche Eustis, trustee, that the tax rate may be set at $1.10 per assessed valuation. An override tax was also discussed but none decided on.

Current year's budget is $82,545. The tax rate is $1.10 with a 6-cent override to total $1.16.

It was noted that within the budget is $31,000 in funds representing cash on hand and income still expected this year, less current liabilities. This compares with $22,300 last year.

Budget breakdown is as follows, according to Mrs. Eustis: administration, $1,265; instruction, $37,620; health, $50; pupil transportation, $6,000; operation of plant, $5,550; maintenance of plant $1,700; sick charges, $3,085; community services, $685; capital outlay, equipment, $8,885; buildings, $18,000; trees and a fence for Bolinas School, $200; undistributed reserve, $5,000 and general reserve $5,000.

Trustees also confirmed the appointment of James Richard Hassall of Stinson Beach as the new seventh and eighth grade teacher to start Sept. 1. He replaces James Matranga, superintendent-principal who has resigned. Hassall has been a substitute teacher at Bolinas School.

The trustees also hired Beverly Alberigi of Point Reyes Station as secretary of the board at $600 per year.

Winifred Long Search Widens At Yuba Ranch

Yuba County sheriff's officers today continued a widening search on the ranch of legless veteran Alvin Long, whose estranged wife, Winifred, has been missing since June 10, when she left her Mill Valley home to visit him.

"It will take us two or three more days to finish the search," sheriff's Sgt. Robert Day said this morning.

The sheriff's office is also organizing plans to follow through investigation in areas mentioned by Long in a lie detector test administered Tuesday in Sacramento. Sheriff John R. Dower said test results neither indicted nor cleared Long.

The household troops of France's King Louis XIV (1638-1715) are believed to have worn the first truly military uniform, designed to mark them as a unit. It was a single-breasted frock coat with turned-up cuffs.

Rusk Proposes Negotiations To Renew Air Base Leases

LISBON, Portugal (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today proposed early negotiations with Portugal for renewal of American rights to use the strategic $100 million U.S. air base in the Azores.

There were reports Portugal would demand a sizeable cash payment for denewing the lease.

Rusk made the proposal in talks with Portuguese government officials shortly before flying back to Washington at the close of a nine-day swing through five of America's NATO allies in Europe.

The secretary of state was scheduled to arrive at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., about 8:40 p.m. EDT after a refueling stop in the Azores.

Rusk appeared deliberately to have brought up the Azores issue at the very end of his 22-hour visit. He proposed to Portuguese foreign Minister Dr. Alberto Franco Nogueira that negotiations take place in Lisbon between Nogueira and U.S. Ambassador C. Burke Elbrick.

Some Lisbon reports said the Portuguese might demand the United States make a cash payment of about $80 million for renewal of the U.S. lease on the Lajes Airfield in the Azores.

The present agreement expires Dec. 31. The United States has never paid anything for use of the Azores facility which is a vital part of a world-wide network of American airbases.

Rusk mentioned the Azores matter after lunch at the U.S. embassy and just before leaving for the airport. Diplomatic sources said there was no time for any real discussion of the American request.

Earlier Rusk conferred with Nogueira for one and one-half hours and then met for nearly two hours with Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar.

U.S. sources described the talks as "very cordial" — despite the sharp recent attacks on the United States in the Portuguese press. A group of Portuguese youths had shouted, "Go home," in a demonstration outside the U.S. embassy last night.

Salazar was reported to

have told Rusk that Portugal was sharply disappointed that the United States did not back it in debate on the Angola issue in the United Nations.

Rusk replied that the United States is determined to stand by its policy that all African countries, Angola included, should have the right of self-determination.

The secretary of state told Salazar, however, that the United States had worked hard behind the scenes in the U.N. to water down some of the more extreme anti-Portuguese resolutions proposed by the Afro-Asian bloc.

Barge Too Far Out For Loading Mansion

Moving the Moffitt mansion from San Francisco to Belvedere has been delayed because of rocks near the Marina shore which are hampering the activities of the barge.

According to Norman Gilroy, developers, the rocks are being dredged out today and the house probably will be moved Saturday morning.

San Francisco is the nation's second largest commercial international center, with more consular representatives than any city except New York.

Campaign Trail For JFK?

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy may have to hit the campaign trail hard if he expects to win in November the working majority he concedes he now lacks in Congress.

In words somewhat more severe than he has employed before, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday that a share of the blame for the roadblocks his program has encountered in the House rests on some Democrats who have been voting with Republicans for 25 years.

Kennedy's specific mention of 1938 as the inaugural date for the enduring Southern Democrat-Republican coalition pointed the finger at a select group among 19 House members who have been in Congress that long or longer.

Excluding the Republicans, Kennedy could count only a few—such as Reps. Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), William M. Colmer (D-Miss.) and Frank W. Boykin (D-Ala.) — among the implacable opposition.

But the historical-minded president obviously was talking about the far wider range of conservatives who have been elected in subsequent years—mostly from the South — and who now deny him a working majority on his controversial bills.

Kennedy appeared to believe that to overcome this coalition the Democrats would have to win a bare minimum of six additional administration supporters in a House that now is divided 263-174 in favor of Democrats over Republicans.

This will take some doing in an off-year election, since the party in control of the White House has lost ground in every such contest since 1934.

Freeman Testifies In Estes Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman defended his agency's handling of the Billie Sol Estes case today but acknowledged "some errors and shortcomings for which I, as secretary of agriculture, must assume responsibility."

Freeman's statements were in testimony prepared for the Senate investigation of the Estes case.

The Senate investigation subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), is exploring how the Pecos, Tex., financier made multimillion-dollar profits under federal farm aid programs, and whether high-powered political influence deals helped him.

As the hearing began, McClellan said Freeman's actual appearance on the stand would be delayed until afternoon.

He said members of the committee had not received copies of Freeman's statement until this morning and his testimony would be delayed to give them time to study it.

Freeman declared "no official or employee now in the department is known or can reasonably be believed to have improperly accepted gifts or other favors from Estes."

"Estes received no special benefits as a result of favored treatment from the Department of Agriculture," he added.

Freeman repeated what he has said before, that the government "has lost no money through its business with Estes."

The secretary spelled out his testimony in a 50-page typed statement.

In it he said Estes should not have received additional cotton acreage allotments now under scrutiny in the hearing, and he said the appointment of Estes to the National Cotton Advisory Committee was a mistake.

Freeman said, however, Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy acted in good faith in approving the appointment.

The Senate subcommittee was told yesterday that Murphy approved Estes' appointment last Dec. 22—the same day the undersecretary had endorsed a proposed cancellation of cotton acreage allotments to Estes in some complex land deals the legality of which has been challenged by the department.

"The undersecretary concluded that Estes' involvement in the transfer problem was not a sufficient reason for dropping him from the advisory committee," Freeman said. He added that Murphy based this belief on an understanding that the allotment issue was a civil legal dispute which would not affect Estes' standing as a committee member.

The first day of the Senate inquiry erupted into a political row set off by one of Freeman's subordinates.

West Algerian Capital Calm After Terrorism

ALGIERS (AP)—French army headquarters said today calm had returned to the west Algerian capital of Oran after a rampage of destruction by die-hard European terrorists defying cease-fire orders from the Secret Army Organization.

Eight plastic bomb explosions damaged schools and public buildings Wednesday while sporadic shooting in several areas of the city pitted Europeans against Europeans.

The army said radio reports from its Oran headquarters indicated there had been no violence since 4 p.m. yesterday.

Demonstrations of joy were reported from Oran's Moslem areas, separated from the European sectors of the city by barbed wire.

Secret army leaders in Oran as well as Algiers ordered an end to resistance and urged the European population to join the Moslem majority in rebuilding the ravaged territory.

The quiet came three days before the self-determination referendum that will vote Algeria independent.

"Take heart, peace reigns from Oran to Bone," declared a secret army broadcast last night from Algiers.

U.N. General Assembly Near Adjournment

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly moved toward adjournment today with approval expected of an African-Asian resolution demanding changes in the constitution of Southern Rhodesia.

Britain's Sir Patrick Dean was to speak in opposition to the demand that his government repeal the constitution of December 1961, call a new constitutional conference and repeal all discriminatory laws in the African territory.

The 38 sponsors of the resolution charged that the 1961 constitution—which has not yet taken effect — is designed to perpetuate the rule of the 200,000 white settlers in the territory over the three million Africans.

They compared discrimination against the Africans with South Africa's apartheid race policies and warned that another Algerian bloodbath could occur unless Africans in Southern Rhodesia gained political equality.

The assembly voted 93-0 to split the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi into the independent Republic of Rwanda and Kingdom of Burundi.

RELEASED GI TELLS REDS' TREATMENT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. soldier released by Communist guerrillas told today of 35-hour forced marches during which his arms were bound and his captors led him with a rope around his neck.

Sp/4 George F. Fryett Jr., 26, of Long Beach, told a news conference he was exhibited in many villages during six months in Viet Cong captivity. He said he had to read Communist propaganda aloud at gun point four or five times a day.

Fryett, 26 pounds thinner than when he was captured on Christmas Eve, consulted with a U.S. intelligence agent before replying to questions from newsmen. He denied, as he has done before, that he cooperated in any way with the Viet Cong while he was held in the jungle.

Before allowing him to appear at the news conference, U.S. authorities apparently decided he revealed no secrets to his Communist captors and signed no statements critical of the United States. He said he knew nothing about a letter Communist broadcasters said he had written to his family criticizing U.S. support for the South Vietnamese government.

Fryett said the pair of sandals he had been wearing when captured fell apart because of constant exposure to water and marching. His feet were badly blistered.

The soldier said he tried to escape once by slipping into a river. He managed to loosen his hands while partially under water, he said, and pulled the rope around his neck loose. He then tried to swim away under water, but he was caught and bound tightly again.

During his entire stay with the Viet Cong, Fryett said, he was kept at gun point by guards totaling from seven to 50 men.

Fryett was captured while riding a bicycle about 15 miles from Saigon. He was released last Sunday.

Even Though A Man Is A Former Athlete He May Be A Little Fat

It was an Old Timers night on TV. The late Grantland Rice, one of America's finest columnists, was being honored. Sports celebs came from far and near. World's champion fighters, former champions in every line of sports were there.

"Let us watch the 'Granny' Rice program, sezzi to my child bride. 'It'll prove my point that most fat folks were once athletes.'"

Sure enough Gene Tunney, Jack Dempsey, Bud Taylor, Jim Crowley of the Four Horsemen fame, Gene Sarazen, golf's permanent ace and others by the dozens, I just can't recall. They were there and all of 'em walked on stage pushing their fat little tummies before them.

AND THAT is the kind of show oldtimers will see at Candlestick Park on Aug. 4 when the S.F. Giants put on a show of Oldtimers with glittering careers that are slowly fading into oblivion.

It'll be a terrific sight to see once glamor boy athletes with the S.F. Seals and N.Y. Giants lined up on the base lines being introduced. The lines may extend from home plate to the leftfield fence and from home plate to the rightfield fence.

What a show, you're probably saying. And how come?

It took quite a bit of investigating to discover that the invitations were sent out by Horace Stoneham with the emphasis on "invitation." Horace wires, phones or writes the former players to be his guest via the plane or train and at the hotel in S.F. for one week, all expenses paid.

"BUT THAT'LL cost a bundle," sezzi.

"Yep," a Giant official remarked, "it's very apt to set the boss back $40,000 before he's through. But don't mention my name," was the parting warning from my informant.

One of the most colorful of the Oldtimers sure to be there will be Ralph "Babe" Pinelli, retired National League umpire who culminated 30 years of baseball activity umpiring the Don Larsen no-hit, no-run world series game, the only one in history.

Pinelli as a youngster was an explosive, fresh kid who, when he ran, was running after somebody else, not from them.

While at Detroit he challenged the late Ty Cobb who hesitatingly agreed only to have Harry Heilmann say: "Ty, if you fight him, it's me you are fighting." Ty and Pinelli never fought.

At Chicago while with the

CONNOLLY

White Sox Al De Vorme, a giant of a catcher, picked on the shifty Pinelli who tackled him in a lower berth and pummeled him badly before big Al could unhook himself from players.

WILLIE KAMM, the S.F. Western addition kid, whose sale to the Chicago White Sox by the Seals brought $125,000 in cash, is another Oldtimer who will join Pinelli in the lineup.

Kamm has one of the sharpest pair of scissors in town and gets cramps in his finger cutting dividend coupons. He is loaded with Coca Cola and never drinks anything harder.

Lefty O'Doul, a typical flaming youth in the roarin twenties, now a little bent from carrying stuff to the Bank of America, will leave his gin mill on Geary Street to be there in his glory and with all his flesh.

Walter Mails, one of the greatest lefthanders in Coast League history, now a confirmed Giant public speaker, will be one of the masters of ceremonies for the affair. Mails, independently wealthy, polished and a solid humanitarian, invested wisely in Little League stock which is paying him big dividends but no cash.

"I LIKE the kids, the heck with money," Mails declares. Alex Kamouris, the first Greek introduced to organized baseball, will be here from Sacramento and I hope Earl McNeely, the old flyhawk once with Washington, comes also.

If Earl "Pinches" Kunz can be derailed from his county fair stable in racing he'd give everybody a laugh. He was one of baseball's finest comedians.

Dutch Ruether, another famous southpaw and now a Giant scout, will lineup with the Giant old timers. He'll have plenty of support from the likes of Johnny Vergez, the Oak third sacker; Dick Bartell, scrappy Dick of Alameda; Long George Kelly, wealthy retired Airlines executive, and a long list of other names we'll give you before the actual Oldtimers game.

Dark Lauds Giant Hurling In Win Streak

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Home runs get the most attention yet Manager Alvin Dark credits pitching with reversing the San Francisco Giants' June swoon trend into a five-game winning streak.

As the Giants held a half-game National League lead going into today's opening game in a series of four with Philadelphia, Dark had the statistics to back his contention.

"We've been getting good pitching and good pitching is how to win in baseball," Dark declared.

He wasn't about to discount the two Ed Bailey home runs that played such a big part in a series sweep over Cincinnati, but he still felt pitching was the more important factor overall.

Bailey's two-run shot broke a 3-3 tie in the sixth inning yesterday as relief pitcher Bob Bolin shared honors in a 6-3 victory. The night before Bailey's pinch hit grand slammer brought San Francisco into a 4-3 tie from where they went on to win 6-5.

Juan Marichal, the most effective Giant hurler with an 11-4 record, drew today's starting assignment in the bid to win the club its sixth straight. Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch debated between Jim Owens (2-2) and Chris Short (4-4).

Marichal hurled the second win in the current streak, setting down Milwaukee 3-1 on four hits, the same number Mike McCormick gave up to beat the Braves 4-2 starting the string.

Lefty Billy O'Dell allowed only five hits in beating Cincinnati 3-1 while Stu Miller won the second game against the Reds giving up only one run in three innings of relief work.

Yesterday was right-hander Bolin's turn to star and he didn't give the Reds a hit in 3½ innings after relieving McCormick.

"That was the best job he has done for us," Dark declared of the 6-4 right-hander from Hickory Grove, S.C. The manager also announced that Bolin would start in one game of the July 4 double header against the New York Mets here.

Left fielder Harvey Kuenn sent the Giants off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning yesterday with his third home run of the season.

Kuenn also accounted for the third tally, and the only run not via homer. He tapped a squeeze bunt that scored McCormick in the third.

Wally Post homered for Cincinnati in the second and singled in the fourth on a play scoring Frank Robinson from first when Felipe Alou missed a pickup in right field.

McCormick left in the sixth and it wasn't all his fault. Robinson singled with one out and Post singled him to third. After Bailey and first baseman Orlando Cepeda let Hank Foiles' high foul fall between them, he doubled home a run.

"I lost the ball in the sun," Cepeda explained while Bailey said that when the call from the dugout was for Orlando to take the ball, he stopped pursuing.

Bolin came in and fanned Leo Cardenas, issued a pass to Marty Keough, and then got losing pitcher Ted Wills on an easy bouncer. Manager Fred Hutchinson said after the game he didn't pinch hit for Wills because he was pitching so well.

In the bottom half of the frame came Bailey's decider.

A DIRTY SLIDE — Cincinnati's Frank Robinson gets face full of dirt as he slides in head first in fourth inning yesterday to score the second run for the Reds against the Giants. Giant catcher is Ed

Drysdale And Dodgers Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Calm, cool and collected, that's Don Drysdale. That's right—Don Drysdale.

The Los Angeles Dodgers' fireballer, whose pitching talents have been diminished in the past by an easily reached boiling point, has learned to curb his temper and seems headed toward his first 20-victory season in the majors.

Drysdale, 25, won No. 13 last night with a five-hitter that whipped Milwaukee 6-2, but had to maintain his composure during a series of incidents. Twice he was hit by pitches, and twice had to pitch out of jams created by errors. In the sixth, Maury Wills booted a grounder by Hank Aaron, allowing the first Braves' run to score. In the eighth, Ed Mathews got a double when Frank Howard misjudged his fly, and took third on a passed ball.

Third-place Pittsburgh edged the New York Mets 6-5 in 10 innings and fourth-place St. Louis blanked the Chicago Cubs twice, 4-0 and 8-0 on shutouts by Larry Jackson and Ray Sadecki. Houston and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit knocked off first-place Cleveland 4-0, the New York Yankees beat second-place Minnesota 7-3, Los Angeles' Angels blanked Boston 3-0, Baltimore edged the Chicago White Sox 3-1 and Kansas City defeated Washington 4-1.

Drysdale (13-4) also got the Dodgers started in the fifth when he was hit by a Bob Shaw (9-4) pitch. Wills forced him, then rode home on Willie Davis' homer. The Dodgers clinched it with three in the seventh against reliever Hank Fischer.

PIRATE VICTORY

Bill Virdon's fourth single, a walk to Dick Groat, and Bob Skinner's third single got the game-winner across for the Pirates against Mets' starter Roger Craig (4-10). The victory went to Diomedes Oliva (3-0).

Jackson (7-7) checked the Cubs on four singles in the opener and Sadecki (5-4) held the Chicagoans to five hits in the windup as the Cardinals ran their latest winning streak to five games.

Ken Boyer accounted for two runs batted in with three singles in the opener and Charley James drove in the others with a two-run double off loser Don Cardwell (4-8). Homers got the job done in the second game with Carl Sawatski hitting a pair and Julian Javier and Curt Flood one each. The loss went to Bob Anderson (1-5).

Reed Witt Wins Third Round Play

Reed Witt of Larkspur won his third round match in the boys' 18 singles of the National Junior Harcourt tennis championships at the Peninsula Club in Burlingame yesterday by taking two straight sets from Bill Clark of San Rafael, 6-0, 6-1.

Other results from Marin tennis players were:

Boys' Singles 18—Gregg Parkerson of Novato defeated Mike McClean of Sacramento, 1-6, 7-5, 6-4; Parkerson also defeated Joe Adams of Visalia, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4; Harvey Klyce of San Rafael lost to Jim Osborne, 7-5, 6-1.

Girls' Singles 18—Cathy Atterbury of Belvedere lost to Jan Anduiza, 6-1, 6-0.

Girls' Singles 14—Robin Hodgdon of Mill Valley lost to Adrien Teeguarden 7-5, 5-7, 6-2; Robin Fritzker of Mill Valley lost to Pixie Lamm of Oakland, 7-5, 6-2.

Weill To Replace Oerter In Meet

CHICAGO (AP)—Stanford discus thrower Dave Weill will compete for the United States track and field team, as a replacement for Al Oerter, in the meet against the Polish Nationals here this weekend.

Weill flew here last night. He placed third in the AAU meet at Walnut last week to earn him place as an alternate on the team.

In Babylon, N.Y., Oerter said he was skipping the Polish meet because he was overly tired. But he said he expected to be ready for the meet against Russia at Stanford, July 21-22.

Twins Sign J.C. Star

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Bob Stephenson, 19, outfielder-third baseman for Wilmington Junior College, was signed yesterday by the Minnesota Twins. He received a bonus, amount undisclosed.

Only Two Yanks Remain In Wimbledon As Reed Loses

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Rod Laver of Australia, shooting for a tennis "grand slam," defeated Whitney Reed of Alameda in the third round of the Wimbledon championships today, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4, reducing the American men's survivors to two.

YOUTH HURLS NO HITTER; THIRD IN ROW!

Jimmie Sparks, 12-year-old hurler for the Yankees of the Novato Little League, hurled his third consecutive no-hitter yesterday as he blanked the Tigers 10-0.

Sparks struck out 10 and walked only four as he faced 21 Tiger batters. Only one ball got past the infield, a fly ball which was snared in the outfield.

The pitching phenom struck out 11 in a no-hitter against the Pirates on June 4 and got all 18 outs via strike outs in the Tiger win over the Reds on June 19.

"I throw fast balls and curves costly," said Jimmy, who is 4-feet-10½ and weighs 84. "But sometimes I use a let-up or a knuckleball."

The first senior women's amateur championship of the United States Golf Assn. will be held at the Manufacturers' Golf and Country Club, Oregon, Pa., Oct. 17-19.

AAU Basketball Star Drowns In Lake

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—John M. Koskovich, 22, a member of the 1961-62 New Mexico AAU basketball champions drowned yesterday in Crab Orchard Lake near Carbondale when the boat he was in capsized.

In the opening round of men's doubles, Don Dell of Bethesda, Md., and John Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., defeated Wayne Reid and Warren Woodcock of Australia, 9-11, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Two Tournay Winners

George McCoy and Tina Peterson defeated Jim Ewert and Loretta Birch 6-2, 6-2 on Sunday to win the Tiburon Peninsula's Mixed Doubles bisque tournament.

MARIN PROP WASH

By ELEANOR FREEMAN

Here Is Attitude We Hope Marin Boaters Don't Have

July 1 through 7 is Safe Boating Week. We'd rather by-pass rules and regulations and define one boater's attitude.

If you (and the bank) don't possess a craft with low Dachshund lines and turbo jet acceleration, you can still bluff it out and give the illusion of holding your own.

Never let a boat pass you. This is a terribly "face losing" experience, and is bound to leave a bad impression with your passenger. Every time a boat tries, just open your throttle and weave back and forth in front of it.

Impress your rider. Let him see how good you really are. Demonstrate how close you can come to the Bird Cage in the Canal. If you can clip the buoys you'll send the seals flopping off. And what's one cracked chine.

Don't be silly and keep your eyes glued on the course ahead of you. You came out to see the scenery. So, look.

PULL INTO Tiburon and Sausalito and get several "snorts." And take a bottle with you. It'll increase your ability and sharpen your reflexes. Make a close-in run around that sluggish freighter on its way to Stockton. Oo-ops! That was a wet one. When your rider finishes wiping his glasses and stops his complaining, have him do some bailing.

He's a kill-joy. You go ahead and do what pleases you. You pay taxes on everything else, and are probably paying hidden taxes on waterways. This makes it yours, doesn't it?

Sheer off those wharf-fishermen's lines. Swamp a small sail boat and give those kid swimmers something to remember you by. It's fun. And who's gonna get hurt.

About this time the Coast Guard may stop you.

That's life! A thousand morons on the water, and a capable boater like you gets "it." There ain't no justice.

UNMISTAKABLY CHRIS-CRAFT, is that company's 16 ft. ski boat. The "hot" qualities sought by those active in the sport will be found in this fine model. The hull has a double-planked bottom, and sides are beautiful grain-matched Philippine mahogany. Speeds to 42 mph.

Last Sunday, much work still went on at the Marin Rod & Gun Club. The pier was extended and the old float was finally torn out. Material is being lined up for a new 6 x 48 foot styro-foam supported unit. According to "whip-master" Warren Orlandi, supervising the detail, "We've still got to remove some mud that's bothersome at low tide. Then we'll have it made." The dredger was unable to complete its job, not being able to maneuver in that close.

PANCAKES AND a gin fizz breakfast were recently enjoyed by members of the Gallinas Boat Club. And some time in July—when the moon is co-operative—they will night cruise.

This club started out a few years ago as a neighborhood "deal." But, nurtured by a growing and mutual interest, it has become well-organized and takes the large Gallinas Valley area into its membership. Meetings are held at the coffee shop at McNear's Beach.

FOUND: At Marin Boat House, the Sea-Mate Ski trolley. This new and novel boon to the skier, fastens to the transom. The hitch travels on nylon trolleys, giving a more positive action, and it tilts as the motor tilts.

QUESTION: I'm a lady-boater with a smallish boat. Please give me a little information on the right size anchor, and use of same.
Miss M. R.
Stinson Beach

ANSWER: Your anchor line should be about five times the water depth for good holding. Reverse your motor to set your anchor. You didn't say what your boat length was, but an eight-pounder with flukes is recommended up to 16 feet, and 13 pounds for the 16 to 20-foot craft.

QUESTION: What are the safety items for the small boaters?
Tolly E.
San Rafael

ANSWER: First, carry all LEGALLY REQUIRED safety equipment. Your boat dealer can hand you this information. Proper lights are necessary. And don't be caught "out there" with a conked out motor and no anchor. Some other good items are: paddle or oar, mooring lines, something to bail with, flashlight and a first aid kit.

IT'S VACATION TIME. And we're off and away on a boating safari (what else?). Back again some time in July.

Sohner Service Gets 9-8 Softball Win Over Nicasio

After coming from behind to gain a 9-4 lead, Sohner Tree Service had to stave off a last-minute Nicasio rally before posting a 9-8 softball victory over the Bisons at San Anselmo's Memorial Park Tuesday.

In contrast to Saturday's 10-inning struggle in which Nicasio nabbed a 1-0 verdict over Sohner, Tuesday's contest was a free-swinging affair.

Buzz Keaton's long two-run homer in the first and a sudden wild streak by Sohner hurler Jay Leatherwood in the second gave Nicasio a 3-1 advantage before the Treemen rallied for three runs in the third to grab the lead.

After Nicasio knotted the score at 4-4 in the fourth, Sohner recaptured the lead in the fifth on Bob Gini's two-run single to center and then scored three times in the sixth with Art Donati and Ed Schulze providing the key blows.

The Bisons scored four times in the first inning before Leatherwood retired the final batter to post his seventh win of the season.

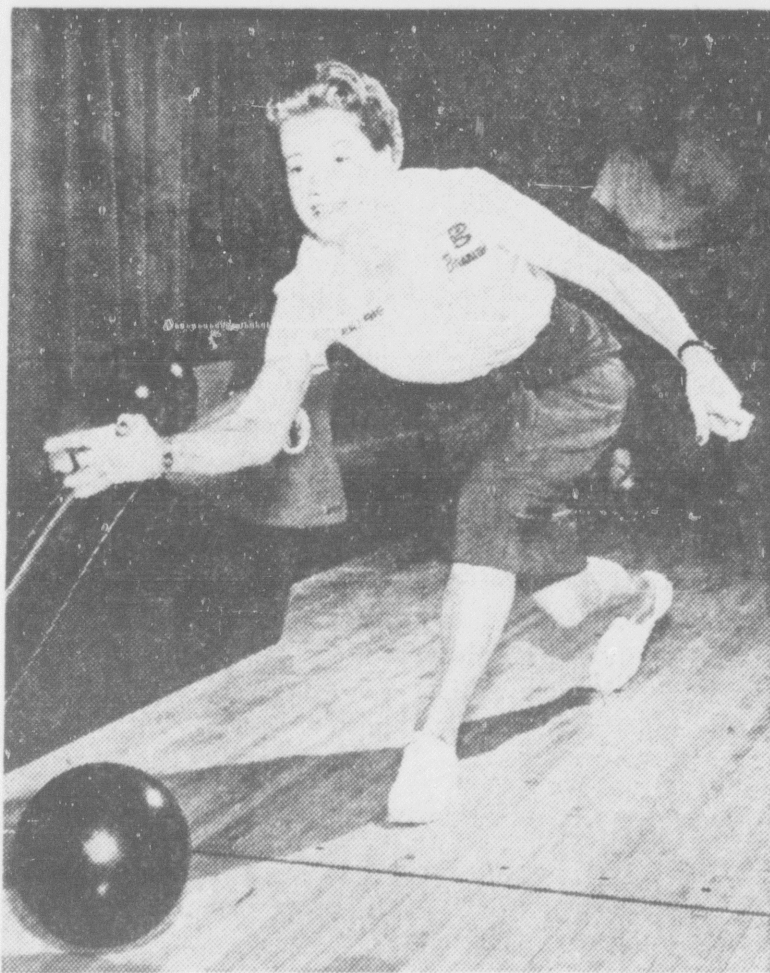

Marine's Tork To Reenter School

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP) — Marine Lt. Dave Tork is going back to school, and he still plans to keep his vaulting pole in action, even if he can not play for the varsity.

Tork, who set a world record in the pole vault earlier this year, announced yesterday he plans to enroll as a graduate assistant at Southern Illinois University.

The position will not allow him to compete with the varsity, but it will permit him to be a member of the SIU Track Club in AAU events.

Field Of 135 Golfers Go In Western Open

CHICAGO (AP)—A field of 128 professionals and 7 amateurs teed off in the Western Open on a golf course that defies anyone to take it apart.

Par 71 for the 7,110-yard Medinah No. 3 appeared a big challenge as the game's stars tried to position their shots along the tree-flanked fairways and eight dogleg holes that require precision drives.

Daily 18-hole rounds will lead to the windup Sunday and most of the pros looked for a 72-hole score of from 282 to even par 284 to take the $10,000 first prize.

Cary Middlecoff, who is not competing this time because of illness, won the 1949 National Open on Medinah No. 3 with 286. He started with a 75 and ended with the same figure, but in between his 67 still stands as the course record.

For the first two rounds, defending champion Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, the man who defeated him 71-74 recently in a playoff for the National Open crown at Oakmont are paired together.

"From tee to green, this course is the finest and toughest I ever played," said Nicklaus, 22, who turned pro this year after twice winning the National Amateur.

"I'd say an even par 284 could win it," said Nicklaus.

Palmer got in some practice on the timbered layout yesterday after first taking a look at the course from a helicopter in a half-hour tour.

"Looked like a jungle down there," he said.

Terra Linda Swim Signups To Close

Registration for swimming lessons in the Terra Linda Recreation District will continue through tomorrow from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 5 p.m. at the district office, officials have announced.

Registrations also will be taken at the district open house Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. The Terra Linda pool will not be opened until July 4.

Openings are available for the four sessions—each lasting two weeks—on July 9 and 23, and August 6 and 20. Classes last one-half hour Monday through Friday.

Persons interested in the swim team and aquacade can discuss the programs with Janet Newman, director, during the open house.

We Will Have Less Ducks In Fall;
Saturday Last Chance For Clams

Sort of looks like we are going to pay more for a permit to coax the ducks to our ponds by artificial feeding ($25 for a season) and very likely will have fewer ducks to dine as our guests.

Word from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service indicates the south-flying birds this fall may be fewer in numbers than for many moons.

The annual aerial survey this year showed a 37 per cent decrease from last

Geminiani Has Hot
Week On The Hill

Nino Geminiani of San Anselmo, pitcher for Thomasville, Ga., in the Class D Georgia-Florida League, last week struck out 31 batters in 17 innings of two games pitched, winning one game and losing the other.

Geminiani ran his strike out total to 62 in the 55 innings he has pitched thus far this season. His record so far is two wins and six losses and he has appeared in 15 games. He has allowed 38 hits and walked 52. His earned run average is 5.21.

Vincent Pallavicini of San Anselmo, teammate of Geminiani's on the Detroit Tiger farm club, went four for 13 last week to bring his batting average from .268 to .272.

One of Pallavicini's hits was his ninth double of the season. The San Anselmo baseballer also knocked in his 19th and 20th runs during last week's play.

Doug Wilson of Larkspur, outfielder for the Fresno

Giants of the Class C California League, collected four hits in 15 trips to the plate last week and dropped his batting mark .002 points to .285.

So far this season, Wilson has recorded 47 hits in 165 at bats. He has scored 26 runs and has 16 RBI's.

Jr. Chamber To Install In San Rafael

Insurance broker Edward K. Wachsman of 539 Thyme Place will be installed Saturday as president of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Wachsman will succeed Robert Casassa of Marin Cleaners.

The installation ceremony will be at a steak dinner, to be followed by dancing, at 80 Cushing Avenue.

New officers to be installed, besides Wachsman, are: William Henderson Jr., internal vice president; Robert Branson, external vice president; Fred Richelleu, treasurer; Ted Schweitzer, secretary, and Ted Graypner, state director.

To be installed on the board of directors are: James Lane, John King, James McKinney, Donald Leaf and Robert Casassa.

Officers and directors will meet July 7 to map a program for the next 12 months.

Jury Renders No Verdict On Stabbing

A jury of eight women and four men could not decide Tuesday night whether a San Quentin convict was guilty attacking a fellow inmate with a knife last Feb. 27.

The jurors deliberated for more than five hours and came out deadlocked 8 to 4 in favor of the suspect, Angel R. Nino, 24, Nino, a Los Angeles robber, is accused of knifing Alex Luchuga, a Riverside County narcotics violator.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court continued the case until Monday to set a new trial date.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety said he would definitely seek a second trial. Deputy Public Defender Jerome Durham represented Nino in the trial.

Member Of Trio, Wife To Divorce

Marriage has turned sour for one of the sweet-singing Kingston Trio, according to a divorce complaint filed in Marin Superior Court Tuesday.

John Stewart of Mill Valley, 23-year-old song writer and singer, is accused of extreme cruelty by his wife Julia, 23. The family home is at 170 Miller Avenue.

Mrs. Stewart says he makes $3,000 per month, and she needs $1,750 of that for temporary support of herself and their four-month-old son John Jr. They were married on June 8, 1960, and separated last May 20.

Mill Valleyite Wins Army Award

Thomas A. Blezard of Mill Valley, a specialist in translating complex government operations into understandable language, was honored by the Army this week with a $250 "sustained superior performance" award.

The award was presented by Col. John G. Fort, chief of staff of Pacific Transportation Terminal Command headquarters at Fort Mason. Blezard is assistant chief of the command's review and analysis division.

Miami Police Shut Five Night Clubs

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Police closed all five of Miami Beach's strip joints Tuesday. The police chief said they were fire traps.

Testimony before a Senate investigating committee in Washington Tuesday indicated that some of the night clubs at Miami Beach were controlled by the underworld and allowed open solicitation for prostitution.

"I've been planning this for months," said Police Chief Michael Fox. "Other investigations held it up."

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Farewell Parties Honoring Popular San Anselmo Couple

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Farewell parties are being given for Mr. and Mrs. Karl Klentz, popular Marinites, who have sold their home on Butterfield Road, San Anselmo and moving to Mexico City. It is a business transfer for Karl who was reared in Marin County. Mr. and Mrs. Klentz are driving to Mexico, leaving here July 3. With them will be their son Karl Jr., who has been attending College of Marin and will enroll in Mexico City College. His brother, Walter Klentz, is flying to Europe today where he will spend the summer under the Experiment in International Living program. He'll make his home with a family in Balingen in West Germany and will also travel extensively.

Mr. and Mrs. Klentz will be guests of honor at the large cocktail party Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Nicolai are giving at their home in Sleepy Hollow Sunday. Mrs. Klentz was feted at a surprise luncheon yesterday at which Mrs. Charles Gombia of San Anselmo was the hostess. Guests also included Mesdames Nicolai, Edward Larson, William Ratto, Warren Luce, Richard Fontana, Richard Schau, Matt Schau, Joseph De Maestri, Mitchell Mosher, Dillie Ticoulet, Fred Galassi, Donald Scagliola, Thomas Doyle and over from San Francisco came Mrs. Walter Podd, mother of the honor guest, and Mrs. Al Garcia, her sister.

A BON VOYAGE party honoring William Patrick Bottini of San Rafael will be given at the home of Mrs. Lucille LaVoy of Glenwood, Saturday. The guest of honor, called Pat, with Charles Billings of San Rafael will sail July 8 on the Mariposa for a six weeks' cruise. The ship will make ports in Tahiti, New Zealand, Australia, Fiji Islands, Samoa and Hawaii. Pat will visit friends he made during a recent trip to Honolulu.

A nautical theme will be combined with Hawaiian decor for the party Mrs. LaVoy is giving. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Thompson of Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Remo Scherini and Charles Cass of San Rafael, Miss Doris Holder, Miss Virginia Nay and Joseph Perna of San Francisco.

Pat will be host at a shipboard party in his stateroom on the Mariposa just before the ship sails.

DR. ALBERTINE NASH has returned to her home in Tiburon after spending two months in the east. She drove more than 10,000 miles on her trip and visited in New York, her former home, and renewed many old friendships on the Atlantic seaboard. Dr. Nash with her two sisters, Miss Elsa Richards and Miss Alice Richards, both of New York City, drove to Maryland where Dr. Nash, who taught psychology at University of California, San Francisco State College and Tamalpais High School, met a former student, Robert Corwin. Dr. Nash with her sisters drove to Cape Cod, Mass., Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Vermont. They stayed at Lake Champlain in New York for several days.

Dr. Nash's niece, Robin Lea, a high school junior, flew from New York City to spend the summer with her.

THE JOSEPH BLUMENFELD family will spend the summer at Canary Cottage, home of Mrs. Clem Whitaker (Leone Baxter Whitaker) in Kent Woodlands. Mrs. Whitaker will be living at the Fairmont Hotel. Joseph Blumenfeld, president of Blumenfeld Theaters, is a former resident of San Rafael. He and his wife and their children, Andrea, 17, Robert, 16, and Judy, 14, have a home at 3540 Jackson St., San Francisco.

POUCETTE, the delightful French artist, whose paintings are on display at the Pomeroy Galleries in San Francisco, had a surprise for her hostess, Mrs. William (Peggy) Pomeroy of Sausalito at Monday night's invitational preview. The galleries are in a picturesque old firehouse in Jackson Square and Poucette painted a picture of the exterior and presented it to Peggy. The painting was done in a brilliant orange, one of the artist's favorite colors. And just for good measure, Poucette decorated Peggy's leg cast. Last night the French Consul General Pierre Besdevant and his wife gave a pink champagne party for Poucette.

REDWOODS PRESBYTERIAN Church in Larkspur was the setting for the wedding of Carleita Thomas and Richard M. Schwartz. The pair are on a wedding trip to Hawaii, following which they will live in Oakland.

'TERRIBLY BUSY—'

Mill Valley Mother Manages State Superintendent Race

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Joyce Gross in a Mill Valley housewife who stirs up a storm when she wants to see something done or is dissatisfied with the way it is being done.

The mother of three children, she became fascinated with education and soon realized politics—the non-partisan kind as far as she is concerned—are an important avenue to accomplishment.

After a whirlwind of activity in her own town and county since the family moved to Mill Valley in 1955, she is now Northern California campaign manager for Dr. Ralph Richardson, candidate for state superintendent of public instruction.

This is a larger job than it sounds because for this purpose 50 counties are considered "northern" with only eight in Southern California.

"IN THE PRIMARY we concentrated on the Bay Area, but we're going to work farther afield now," she said, "and I'm sure we'll increase the 80,000 vote lead Dr. Richardson has over his opponent, Max Rafferty, by the November election."

Joyce Gross manages the campaign from headquarters at 222 Kearny St. in San Francisco and her home, where she now has two telephones.

"We're terribly busy," she explained, "because we believe if you go to the grass roots and make your base broader in appeals for contributions, you get just as far as by going after the 'big money.' The 'big money' can have strings attached to it we're not willing to put up with," she said.

Somehow Joyce, who is the wife of commercial artist Edmond Gross and mother of three children, Victoria 13, Valerie, 11, and Robby, 9, manages to look after her home and family.

Before summer vacation she was home by 3:30 p.m. and carried on the campaign mostly by telephone and letter. Now she is making field trips and takes the kids along, if necessary.

"I just park them at a motel with a swimming pool, and we're usually home for dinner," she said.

HOW SHE GOT the job is typical of her approach to problems. She first became impressed with Dr. Richardson after hearing him speak at Mill Valley's Awareness Group, which she founded two years ago. Then she spent $28 of her own money on telephone calls to his home in Los Angeles to make sure their positions on education issues were in agreement before she decided to work for his election on the local level. Then on the recommendation of several people, he asked her to head his Northern California campaign.

Before she was elected last year as the only woman member of Mill Valley's Elementary School District Board of Trustees, she had held several other positions. She was president of the Mill Valley P-TA Council from 1959 to 1961, a member of the Tamalpais High School Citizens' Advisory Committee in 1960 and of the district bond issues steering committee in 1959. She was educational director of the 14th P-TA District until her election to the school board.

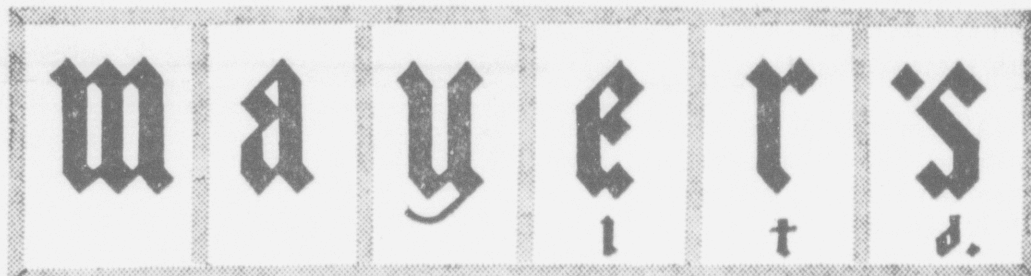

FOR HER POSITION on the school board she waged a near professional level campaign on a platform that included such statements as "The three R's are essential tools, but a truly educated person uses them as stepping stones."

Joyce Gross further believes that women should be better informed about vital political issues and government and founded two study groups to this end.

This year she arranged a series of seminars on county government sponsored by the 14th P-TA District in conjunction with two Mill Valley women's groups, the League of Women Voters, in which she is active, and the local unit of the American Assn. of University Women.

Two years ago Joyce founded a unique venture, the Awareness Group, composed of about 50 women leaders in the community who meet periodically for lunch and programs on subjects ranging from civic and education affairs to world wide problems.

Marder-Thomas Rite Held In San Rafael

The First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael was the setting of the marriage of Sandra Louis Thomas and Ronald Marder, both of Novato, in a 2 p.m. ceremony Saturday.

Dr. John J. Canoles, the officiating clergyman, also married the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas, 19 years ago.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of imported Chantilly lace. Her maid of honor, Joan Whitten of Novato, wore a gown of yellow and the bridesmaids, Linda and Randa Thomas, the bride's sisters, and Chris Garberoglio, Karen Prater and Mrs. E. E. Brown, wore dresses of light green lace and organza over taffeta.

Kim Cuneo of San Rafael and Patti Barton of Novato were the flower girls. Leslie Marder, a brother of the bride, groom, was ringbearer. Ronald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marder. Best man was Jay Johnson of Novato. Ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Kenneth, and John McAdams of Pacifica, Ernest Brown, Ronald Vela of Novato and David Elmore of San Rafael.

The bride was graduated from Novato High School this spring. Her grandparents are Mrs. C. D. Thomas and the late Mr. Thomas of Sausalito and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cuneo of Corte Madera.

Ronald is also the brother of Gary and the grandson of Mrs. M. Marder of Kentfield. Tomahawk Lodge, north of Novato, was the setting for the reception.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel, The couple will leave for Albuquerque, N.M., where the bridegroom is stationed at Kirtland Air Force Base.

SAMPLING THE VINO

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D.
Guidance Counselor

Three-Year-Old's Rebelliousness Requires Understanding By You

It was fun while it lasted. Too bad it couldn't last forever. My young friend "Billy" is now three. Up to this month he's been a wonderful little conformer. Now he's a rebel. Goodbye forever to the easy days with Billy!

Remember how your children were? Up to about three they obeyed happily. They ran errands gladly. They did not play with matches. They stayed off the streets. They always tried to do what you told them. Then bingo, it was over. Almost overnight they started disobeying. They did the very things you'd taught them not to do. They were frantic and worried. They weren't happy. But they just couldn't obey any more.

Why the change? Psychiatrists say it's because they're building their consciences. They're becoming independent. They need to make their own decisions. They learn the difference between good and bad by experimenting. They establish future guidelines by experiencing the results of many kinds of behavior.

Can you help a three-year-old through his rebellious period? Yes, you can. Be sure to give him three things:

Love. Keep showing your love for your little rebel. He needs to know that in spite of the punishment you give him, he still occupies a big place in your heart. Don't ever withhold love from a child.

Consistency. Set up a few simple rules to guide his behavior. Be sure he understands them. Then be as consistent as possible in enforcing them. Don't spoil him one day, and crack down the next. If you do that he'll really be puzzled.

Discipline. Give discipline wisely. Always use the mildest punishment that will teach the needed lesson. Save corporal punishment for the few most dangerous mistakes he makes. Most of us spank too frequently.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "What is the most common mistake parents make with three-year-olds?"

L. J. H.

(A) Probably it is inconsistency. The effect is to confuse the children, and slow their progress.

MARRIED RECENTLY in St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Petaluma, were Elenore Dolores Ghisletta and Ronald Paul Renati of Petaluma.

Naomi Cole Is Bride-Elect

Announcement has been made of the engagement and forthcoming wedding of Naomi Ellen Cole of Ross and Peter Campbell Claypool of Oakland.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen Cole of Ross, was graduated from the Katharine Branson School and the University of California where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. George and Robert Cole II of Ross are her brothers. She is the granddaughter of Richard E. Cole and the late Mrs. Cole and the late Mr. and Mrs. George S. Pettapiece, all of Vancouver, B.C.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald A. Claypool of Oakland, was graduated from Berkeley High School and the University of California, where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity. He is now completing graduate study in business education. Terry Sue Claypool of Berkeley is his sister and he is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Claypool and the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Campbell.

The wedding will take place on Sept. 2 at St. John's Church, Ross.

Setting Fur Pace

Fashion historians report the first woman to wear fur for glamor as well as warmth was Queen Samsaramis of Assyria. In 800 B.C. she drew a small fur mat about her chilled shoulders. So entranced were the members of her court that her simple act set a fashion trend. Other females of her time followed suit. Fur's been fashionable ever since.

Elenore Ghisletta Bride Of Ronald Renati Of Petaluma

In a double ring ceremony at St. Vincent's Catholic Church in Petaluma, Elenore Dolores Ghisletta was united in marriage to Ronald Paul Renati on June 10.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ghisletta of Petaluma was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Ignio P. Fontana officiated at the 3 p.m. ceremony.

Elenore wore a gown of peau de soie, appliqued with jeweled Alencon lace. Her sisters, Mrs. Leroy Geving of Santa Rosa, was matron of honor and Har-oldine Ghisletta, Petaluma, was maid of honor. Another sister, Annette Ghisletta, Petaluma, and Gloria Tomrose and Marlene Fomasi of Cotati, bridesmaids, wore gowns of white cotton.

Flower girl was Carol Jean Fomasi of Cotati, cousin of the bride, and ringbearer was Larry Morrison of Bloomfield.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Renati of Novato was attended by his brother, Emil Jr., of Novato. Ushers were Joseph Respini, Bill Bianchini, Pete Ielmorini all of Petaluma, Bob Leveroni of Novato and Don Romelli of Cotati.

The bride is also the sister of Harold Jr. and Kathy of Petaluma. Her grandparents are Mrs. Olivia Ghisletta, Antonio Ghisletta of Petaluma, and Pete Fomasi of Sebastopol. The bridegroom's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davi of Petaluma and Mrs. Albina Compari of Santa Rosa.

Petaluma Women's Club was the setting for the reception.

The pair are both graduates of St. Vincent High School in Petaluma. The bride was graduated from the College of California Dental Assistants in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Renati left for their new home in Southern Pines, N.C., where the bridegroom is serving with the Army.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Gov. Brown Goes For All Or Nothing In Bid For Bonds

Governor Brown was faced with a Hobson's choice in his decision to re-submit the $270 million state construction bonds to the voters in November.

Should he submit it as it was, with a little better title and tightened up a bit, and in this way tell the people they didn't know what they were voting for? Or should he submit the same issues in separate bond issues, fight for them all, but be happy if he got half a loaf instead of the none he has now?

It seems clear from the governor's message to the legislature that his decision to go for the full package was dictated partly by his belief that the voters would understandingly forgive any reflections on their abilities to understand issues, and partly by fear that if the "sex appeal" of the higher education program were eliminated, the rest of the program might go down to defeat.

One of the governor's complaints is that the six weeks between the end of the legislative session and the primary election was not enough time to inform the electorate of "the urgent needs involved."

It must be remembered that it was the governor himself who proposed that Prop. 3 be moved from November to June. It was on his insistence that Prop.

3 and Prop. 1, the school bonds, appeared in June. The Republicans, whom he now tries to blame, wanted all bond issues to be in November; they compromised for all of them in June.

But laying the blame gets us nowhere. The important problem facing the legislators in Sacramento is one bond issue or more than one.

We think it took courage on the part of Senators Jack McCarthy and John Murdy to vote No on the "package" deal when they knew it was going to pass. McCarthy predicted that the same bond issue resubmitted will fail again. And, then where will the colleges and junior colleges be? he asked.

We're afraid he is right.

Sen. Hugo Fisher, author of the "package" bill, declared "we shouldn't say that a seat for a university or college student has a priority over a bed for a mentally retarded child. If the people aren't going to support capital development by bond issue, it should say so across the board, not piecemeal."

That's what worries us; they did say so across the board, by nearly two to one. If the public wants to set up priorities between education for the alert and mentally retarded, shouldn't it be able to do so?

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Partisan Politics Has Finally Taken Over The State Senate

By CHAPIN A. DAY

The pressure of partisan politics has finally completely taken over the State Senate. For years the Senate stood as an independent, non-partisan legislative body, although its members were elected on a partisan basis. The division of the rural against the city senators or the conservative against the liberal senators was much more of a decisive factor. But Tuesday the final barrier came down.

In backing Gov. Edmund G. Brown's request for a "package deal" of a 270 million dollar bond issue for higher education and other state construction, the vote twice was 25 to 9, with all 25 votes being Democratic and all nine being Republican.

It was Sen. George Miller Jr. of Contra Costa who called it to the Senate's attention. "It is the first time in a long, long time we've had a party-line vote," he declared.

Sen. Hugh Burns of Fresno, president pro tem presiding, added, "It's the first one I've ever seen." He's been in the Senate since 1943.

THERE'S MUCH discussion about how long the special session of the legislature will last. Most solons say it will end tomorrow night. One declares it must end tonight because he's run out of clean clothes.

The most knowledgeable of all, however, Joe, the fellow behind the Assembly coffee bar, says it will last nine days and he's put in enough coffee and doughnuts for that long.

MARIN ASSEMBLYMAN William T. Bagley's exuberance may be building up a little resentment among his Republican colleagues.

Bagley, who had been a member of the GOP Task Force in the March session, was left off the special committee named by Caucus Chairman John Buserud to consider alternate proposals to the governor's construction bond issue.

At a press conference after the opening day Republican caucus, Buserud presided, flanked by Minority Floor Leader Joe Shell, and Minority Whip (whose duties are rather vague) Don Mulford.

Let's face it . . . These medical shows can't compare with the drama and excitement of Kennedy's fight with the A.M.A.!"

'CHIP' DAY

THE CYNIC'S CORNER

By Interlandi

CARTOON BY THE CYNIC AND TRAVEL SYNDICATE

Bagley, in the audience, spoke up several times to declare his position.

After the conference one of the presiding trio said to me out of the corner of his mouth, "I see we have a new spokesman for the caucus."

THEY ARE REMODELING part of the third floor of the Capitol annex and many senators are dispossessed of their offices. One of them is Marin Sen. Jack McCarthy.

"That's life," said McCarthy, who wasn't assigned a new office, "you run for lieutenant, and you get lost."

SPEAKING OF running and losing, I saw Wally Hall in the Capitol. He's pretty proud of having run as well as he did (fourth) in the race for state superintendent of schools.

"One candidate had all the organized support, one had all the money and one had most all of the editorial support. I was fourth," he said. "Even so, I carried 16 counties and ran second in 14 others. The total cost of my campaign, so far as I have any knowledge of the money, was just over $7,000" (an amazingly low figure).

What's in store for him with a new superintendent next January?

Although he is in a position (associate superintendent) which is not under civil service, he has a term of office. It still has three years and three months to run, so he isn't looking for a new job yet, regardless of who wins.

REMEMBER WHEN?

20 YEARS AGO

Marin citizens contributed 103 pints of blood in a single day to the Red Cross mobile blood bank, spurred by military needs on fighting fronts.

Volunteers who joined in a Sunday collection throughout Marin County filled two railroad gondolas with tin and collected 50 tons of magazines and papers, eight tons of scrap metal—the latter two items by Boy Scouts and boys of San Rafael High School, respectively.

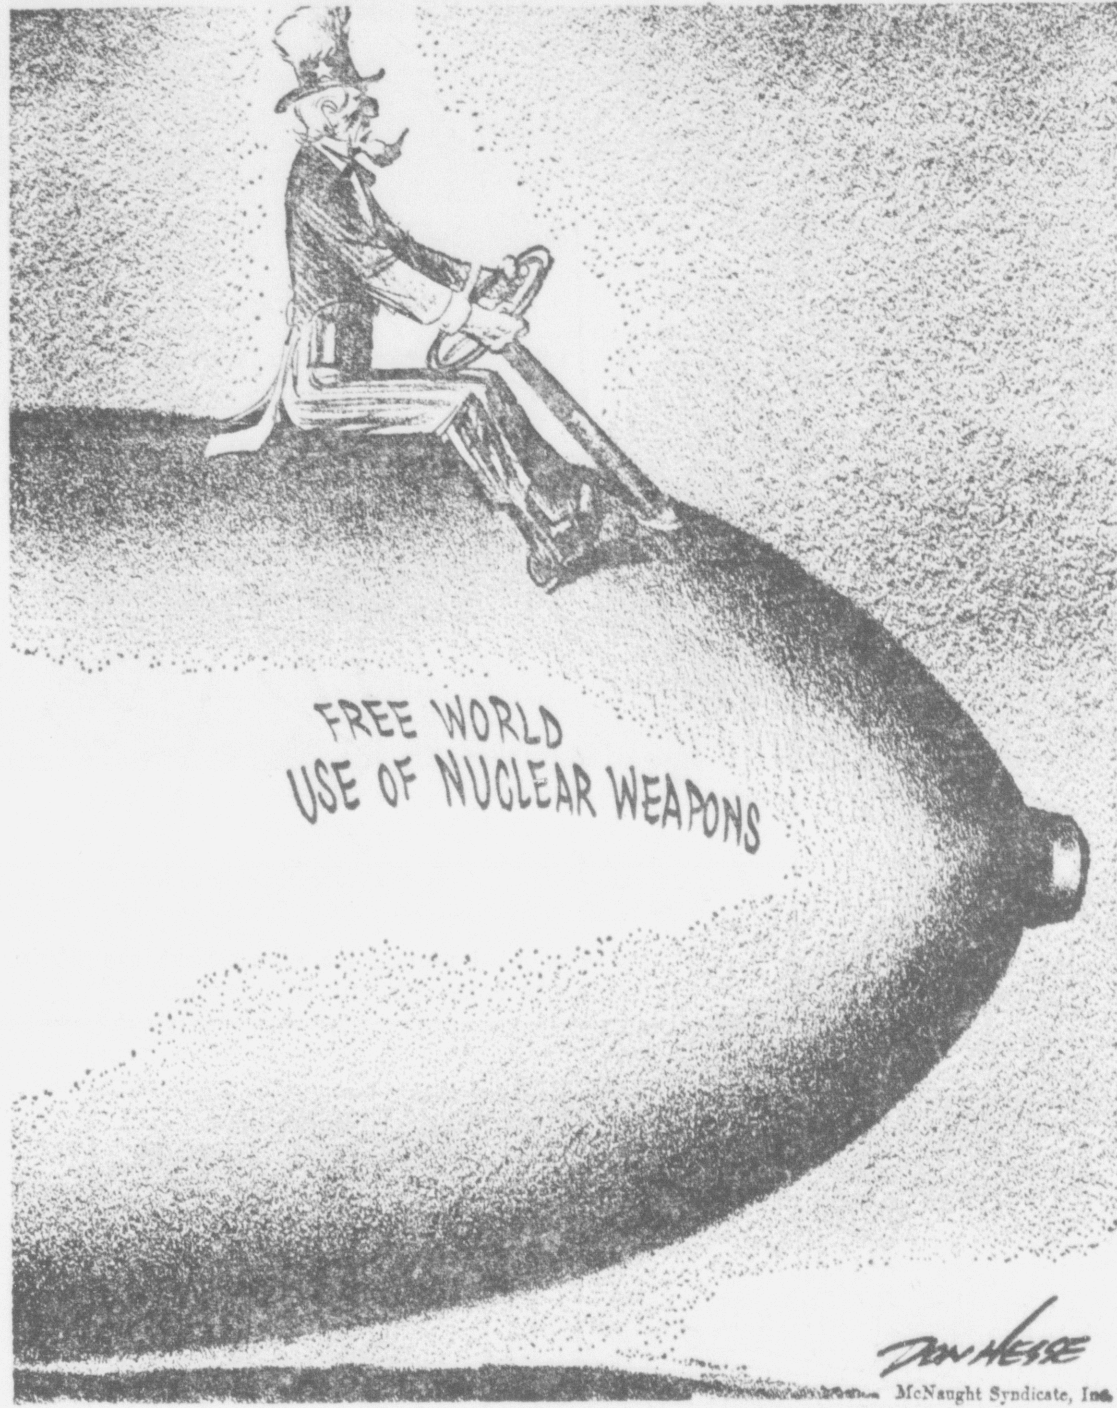

Preparations were under way for employment of 12,000 at Marin Shipbuilding Division and for early laying of the first keel of a Liberty ship, to be followed by one more every 10 days.

Construction of San Rafael's $148,000 Linden Lane underpass was halted by the State Highway Commission, along with other highway projects considered subordinate to needs for military roads.

John C. Oglesby, former county surveyor, was again appointed to the job by the county board of supervisors. He succeeds Emmanuel Johnson, resigned, to take up work he quit 16 years ago.

Night driving along the Marin coast was forbidden in Army and Navy regulations designed to prevent lights from being shown where they could be seen by hostile vessels off-shore.

LET'S STAY IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Doctor Should Enlist Others

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

I wish to comment on the most enlightening letter which appeared in your letters to the editor column on June 15, allegedly authored by one Norman Carrigg who places the letters M.D. after his name.

Mr. Carrigg states that the county jail is not a diagnostic center and that certain functions carried on there at present should be transferred to a hospital.

He also stated that he felt that arresting a person on a charge of "simple drunkenness" was of doubtful legality and might be an invasion of that person's rights.

The "simple drunk" who is arrested is also the potential "drunken driver" who weaves down our streets and highways killing and maiming innocent people. The "alcoholic person" is the person who, with all ability to reason erased by his craving, climbs into his auto to go for another bottle and instead gets the lives of innocent people. These are the people who Dr. Carrigg feel are having their liberty usurped by removing them from circulation in society . . .

As to the allegation that it is common practice for sheriff's deputies to administer paralyde to "raving alcoholics" without the order of a man of Dr. Carrigg's profession, this I believe to be an absolute untruth despite "supposed published reports," but I can state that due to the lack of zeal on the part of some of Dr. Carrigg's fellow doctors, I have heard of instances where a deputy has been ordered by phone to administer paralyde to a man the doctor has never seen but has only listened to the description of the man's symptoms, given by the jailor.

This I say is neither legal nor right. This failure is on the part of the deputy sheriff, who is almost without exception, a man dedicated to his job not for money, but for the assistance he can give humanity.

It would be wonderful if these poor unfortunate "alcoholic persons" could be relegated to a hospital under the personal care of a physician, but I think this would be rather impossible since there are few doctors who would practice in a tax-supported institution for five or six hundred dollars per month. So we must leave these people in the hands of law enforcement officers who will work for this sum.

I suggest that Dr. Carrigg enlist others of his profession who perhaps would be as zealous as he, and research this matter fully so that these persons could be cared for as they should be, in hospitals with doctors attending in person, not by phone.

Until this is done, I pray that the law enforcement officers of this county will continue to "usurp" the liberty of the "simple drunks" so that I and my children may use our streets and highways in comparative safety.

Look Forward To More Removals

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

I would imagine that the so-called "civil libertarians" of Marin County who have been diligently working for the abolition of the Nativity scene from public places are rejoicing over the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision which throws God out of our classrooms.

We can now look forward to the next phase which probably will call for the removal of God from our Pledge of Allegiance and from the face of our currency.

Warning To Unknown Thief

Please publish for the thief whomsoever—that broke into my home via dining room window last night (June 24)—forced entry—Sheriff's office has your package of Pall Mall cigarettes you dropped—to be checked for fingerprints.

Scared you off—hasty exit—back door—you didn't have time to close.

ABC Needs How Many Violations?

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Upon reading the paper tonight (June 25) I was somewhat shocked to read an item pertaining to the ABC hearing on the liquor license of the Bridgeway Inn in Sausalito.

As 10-year residents of Sausalito, we have long hoped for some restrictions in the local bars and have been told that "nothing could be done without evidence."

What more evidence can one want than "19 violations" in four months? How many violations are necessary before the ABC refuses to renew a license?

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By AL BOCK

If We Eliminate All Mosquitoes We May Want Mechanical Ones

Mosquitoes lately have been as rare around our house as copies of the New York Herald-Tribune around the White House. This apparent total absence is due, I am told, to efficiency of our local mosquito abatement district.

The removal of mosquitoes was accomplished as though the whole operation were under the able direction of the Mafia. It was quiet, unheralded surreptitious and absolute.

This is the way people who demand the abatement of mosquitoes want the demise of the creatures brought about.

ALL THE SAME, it was discouraging to find those large, mosquito-eating insects, called mosquito hawks or dragonflies, had vanished in the same cloud of DDT that carried off the mosquitoes.

This is pushing the elimination of pests too far. It's a kind of all-purpose destruction, like the H-bomb prior to the day of civilized improvements, which now allow buildings to survive while mere people are disposed of.

Agricultural authorities assure me the loss of a few insects along with mosquitoes is of little consequence. But I'm not convinced.

THESE SAME authorities seem to disagree as to what really happened to the dragonflies. One said I must have been mistaken, that any sick and dying mosquito hawks were most likely stricken by the heat, not poison.

Another said the anti-mosquito fog could perhaps wreak some small havoc with other flying things, but there was no way of really knowing.

This was all very well, but it became a puzzle when I learned at least one other mosquito abatement district was in the devilish business of raising dragonflies and turning them loose on mosquitoes!

THESE TWO extremes seem hardly fit for ridding a neighborhood of unwanted insects. Both might lead to a lopsidedness in nature.

One district does away with the mosquitoes and all built-in checks and balances. Another encourages such a swarm of mosquito-eaters that they will all starve to death unless some third agency comes along and keeps up the food supply.

Everybody nowadays is busy setting up some kind of "control."

We seem to aim these controls toward the high purpose of perfection in our environment. Land, food, weeds, automobiles, mosquitoes, drugs, utilities, the government, people and ideas all face control or abolition.

THERE'S A GREAT deal of pulling and tugging to get these various controls into place so that anything uncomfortable, like mosquitoes, will not interfere with the idea of progress that hangs heavy over our heads.

We even resort to controlling ourselves, if things don't work out, by regular trips to the psychiatrist.

When everything is tidied up and our abatements have eliminated unpleasant facts, we can relax.

Then, we will probably discover, like the emperor who wanted a nightingale, that we urgently need mechanical mosquitoes and maybe mechanical dragonflies, too.

President Has Decided To Call Off Any Running Battle With Business

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy, it can be said with knowledge, is calling off his running argument with business.

Call it a breathing spell or a truce or an adjournment of harsh debate—the President is for it. His contribution is going to be a period of White House calm.

Kennedy is not altering his conviction that to avert a serious recession deficit spending can be beneficial, but he is altering his tactic. He favors an end to harsh words. He plans to end controversial talk on this matter from the White House for an indefinite period.

Actually the President is inclined to have second thoughts about his Yale speech urging business to abandon "economic myths" and turn its attention to the real problems with which the nation is faced. His second thoughts do not concern the substance of the speech, but its timing and its terminology.

IN ANY EVENT, it is clear now that Kennedy has concluded that no argument between business and the White House is better than unfruitful controversial argument.

The President is not asking that his business critics "stop chewing him up;" that will be their decision. But they will find a quieting silence on controversial fiscal policy which they will have the opportunity to match—if they wish.

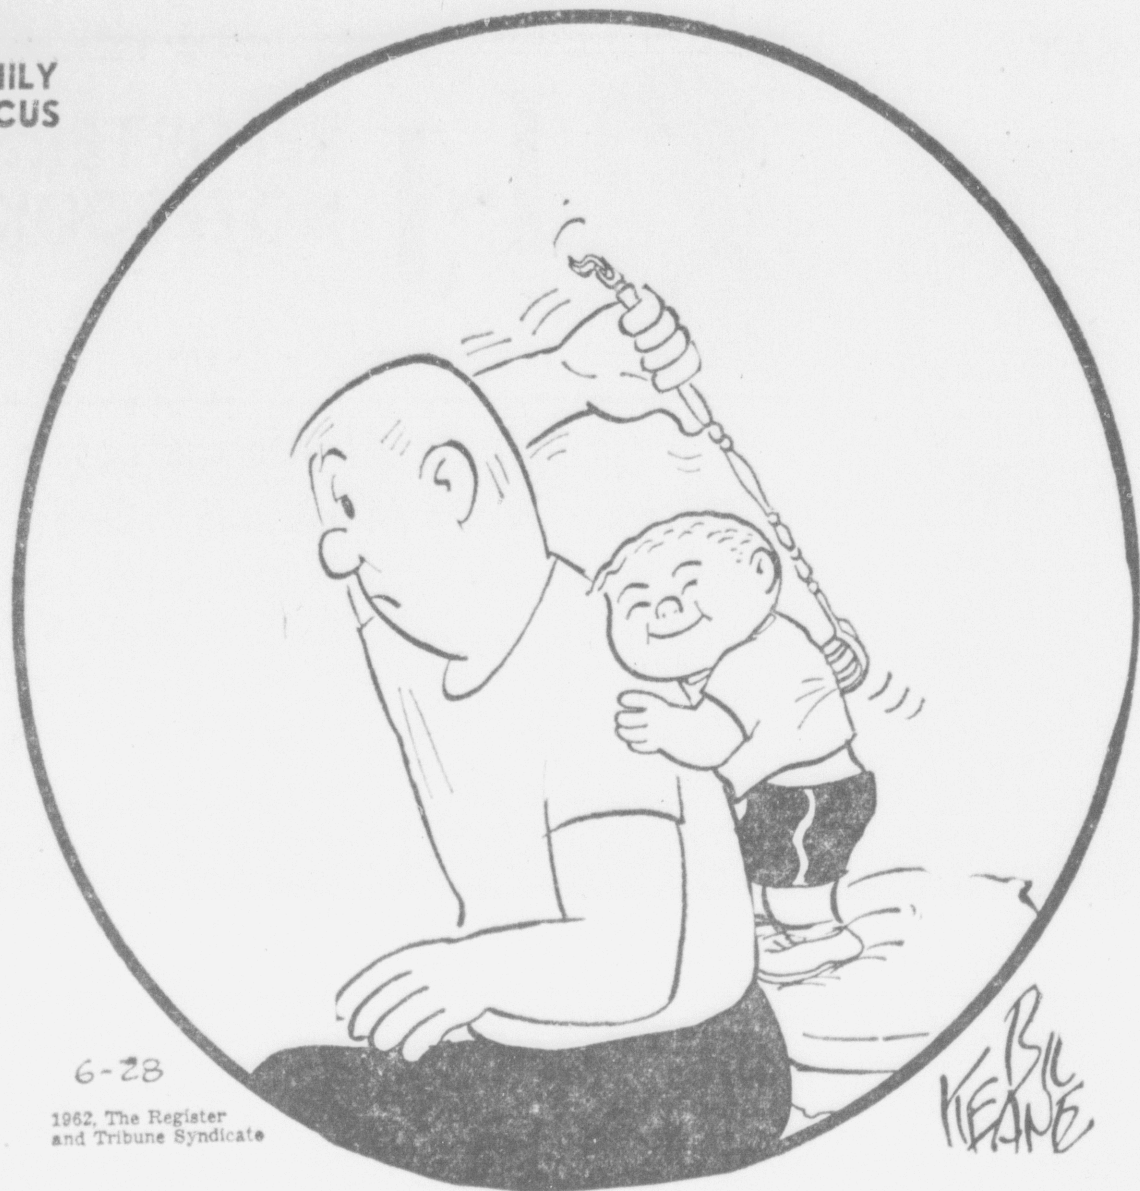

THERE IS EVIDENCE that some influential and responsible spokesmen of business will welcome the adjournment of lacerating debate. I cite the following balanced and wise counsel from the president of the General Electric Co., Gerald L. Phillippe: "I see no value in the kind of talk that raises still higher barriers of suspicion between government and business . . . We businessmen have not done much to relieve the confusion, and the times call for greater cooperation, not conflict, between government and the business community."

This does not mean that the head of General Electric is embracing Kennedy's views of what are economic "myths" and what are economic "realities." He is counseling all concerned that the immediate need is for fewer words and better action and, at the very least, debate without animus.

FOR HIS PART the President is not rescinding his Yale speech which he feels some have purposefully misrepresented. It is not Kennedy's position that all deficit spending is beneficial, but that, as a deterrent to a developing recession, some deliberate deficit spending may be the best means of avoiding greater budgetary deficits.

This may be an unavoidable decision Kennedy will have to make if there is to be a tax cut next year. For the present, however, the White House does not plan to add one degree to the heat or one syllable to the controversy between government and business.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Dangers To Guard Against Should Only Be Real Ones

A cautious friend of mine plays every hand with his elbow up in front of his face. If the hand blows up, he explains, he won't get cut by flying glass. The trouble with this way of playing is that he can't see enough to stay out of ditches.

West can take the ace of clubs and lead a trump, but that will still leave two trumps in the dummy to take care of South's club losers.

My cautious friend won the first trick with the ace of diamonds, and cashed the ace of trumps to guard against a 4-0 trump break. If either opponent showed out of trumps, South would be in position to finesse through the other player.

BOTH FOLLOW
As it happened, both opponents followed suit. South next led a trump to dummy's queen to discard a spade on the king of diamonds. Then he led the singleton club, losing the king to West's ace.

West promptly returned a trump, leaving only one trump in the dummy. South could ruff only one club in dummy and therefore had to lose a second club trick in addition to two spades.

Down one, right in the ditch. CAUTIOUS PLAY
South's cautious trump play would have been correct if he had held K-Q-J-2 instead of K-Q-7-2 of clubs. With the actual hand South had to allow for two ruffs in the dummy and therefore couldn't afford to worry about a 4-0 trump break.

It was more important to provide against a 3-1 break, which was far more likely. At the second trick South should simply lead a low trump to dummy's queen.

He can then discard a spade on the king of diamonds and

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, June 28, the 179th day of the year with 186 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

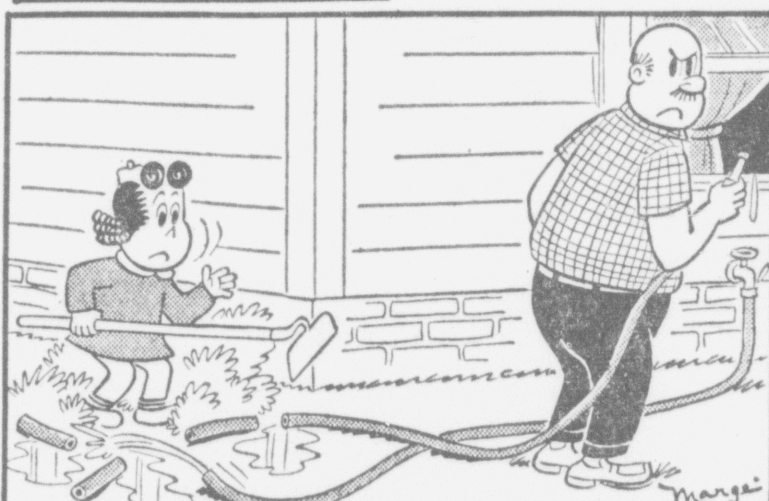

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history: In 1902, the United States bought the uncompleted Panama Canal from France.

In 1945, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced the reconquest of Luzon in the Philippines.

A thought for the day: The French poet, Charles Baudelaire, wrote: "To be a great man and a saint for oneself, that is the one important thing."

Q. Can you name the textbook that's completely rewritten every day?

A. There is one, you know. It's your daily newspaper. When you stop to think, isn't your newspaper the most up-to-date textbook on a great many school subjects?

It's unsurpassed in coverage of current political, social or economic events. It's filled with reports of latest discoveries in biology, chemistry and all sciences. It also fills in background on foreign lands for foreign-language study. It prints articles on local history... food, family, furnishings news of use in homemaking courses... texts of great speeches... examples of English composition and good grammar.

No wonder more and more teachers are using newspapers in classrooms to enrich basic-course material. In fact, newspapers have become such a widespread teaching tool that an extensive program of teachers' workshops has been created. At these sessions—held at various colleges throughout the country—teachers learn the most effective techniques for using newspapers in class to stimulate student interest. Sponsored jointly by educators and American Newspaper Publishers Association, these workshops help teachers help students become active, well-informed citizens. As a textbook for youth or the main source of information for all Americans, our country's newspapers never stop serving.

Furnace Firm Cleans House, Seeks To Offset Past Wrongs

An announcement from the National Better Business Bureau reveals there has been a thorough shakeup in the management and working control of the Holland Furnace Co., with reputable executives now placed in charge.

A few months ago several questionable practices in sales—some of them in Corte Madera and Mill Valley—were brought to light and subsequent publicity triggered a nationwide investigation.

The Better Business Bureau indicates that it plans to cooperate fully with the new management and give Holland a chance to reinstate itself as a result of the housecleaning and the company's recently inaugurated check system on its employees.

Holland Furnace is a nationwide organization with headquarters in Holland, Mich. It is one of the largest installers of home heating and air conditioning in the world. We sincerely hope the new order will restore public confidence in the firm.

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN (and their wives, for that matter) interested in getting a better picture of Marin's airport problem might consider joining Marin Squadron Four of the Civil Air Patrol.

This group with about 35 senior members and 45 in the (junior) cadet section has 21 qualified pilots and eight airplanes—privately or club owned—but it isn't necessary to fly to become a member. Some of the seniors have never been in the air and are content to pick up general information

Horses Win 3 Prizes For Ed Bobo, Novato

Two horses owned by Ed Bobo of Novato have won three prizes at the Solano County Fair in Vallejo.

Sweet Ed took second place in the stock horse open class with Jack Bingham as rider. Bob Cat placed second in open trail horses and second in pleasure horses, with Anne Porabich as rider in both events.

BUSINESS WIRE, a public relations teletype news service which began last October transmitting stories to 60 press (including the Independent-Journal) and broadcasting media in five Bay Area counties, has expanded its services to Sacramento.

It also serves Associated Press, United Press International, McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. and the San Francisco bureau of the New York Times and is one of six such services throughout the country.

LOCAL COMMERCIAL LENSMAN Ken Molino has picked up a nice account in Johnson Outboard Motors. He just completed a four day assignment for the nationwide firm in Trinity County. It was all work, no fishing, he says.
